To further amend the second paragraph of section 2 of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred one (Pamphlet Laws 493), entitled, as amended, "An act providing for the examination, licensure and registration of persons, firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage, and prescribing certain rules, regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing, house drainage and cesspools, in cities of the second class, second class A and third class and imposing fines, penalties and forfeiture for violation thereof," by further providing for the appointment of the plumbing inspector in certain cases in third class cities.

Plumbers.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Second paragraph of section 2, act of June 7, 1901, P. L. 493, as last amended by act of March 31, 1937, P. L. 168, further amended.

Section 1. The second paragraph of section 2 of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred one (Pamphlet Laws 493), entitled, as amended, "An act providing for the examination, licensure and registration of persons, firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage, and prescribing certain rules, regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing, house drainage and cesspools, in cities of the second class, second class A and third class and imposing fines, penalties and forfeiture for violation thereof," as last amended by the act, approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 168), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 2.

* * * * *

Appointment of plumbing inspector.

The mayor of said cities is hereby authorized and required to appoint a practical plumber of at least ten years experience and not engaged or connected, directly or indirectly, with the plumbing business as plumbing inspector, whose duty it shall be to supervise, superintend, and inspect all plumbing, house and building drainage, in conformity with the provisions of this act. And the several cities are hereby authorized and required to make proper provision for the payment of the salary of the said plumbing inspector, as provided by law.

Duttes.

Whenever the mayor of any city of the third class finds it impossible to secure as a plumbing inspector a qualified person who is not engaged in or connected with the plumbing business, he shall have the power to appoint a person who is engaged in or connected with such business, providing such person has the other qualifications herein prescribed. In such event, the mayor shall, as the occasion may arise, appoint a substitute inspector who shall supervise, superintend and inspect the work done by the regular inspector or by the firm with which he is connected in the course of their private business. Such substitute inspector shall be paid for such work reasonable compensation to be fixed by council.

Appointment of plumbing inspector in certain cases in third class cities.

Appointment of substitute inspector.
