

Section 2. In the taking of acknowledgements and the performing of other notarial acts requiring certification, a certificate endorsed upon or attached to the instrument or documents which shows the date of the notarial act, and which states in substance that the person appearing before the officer acknowledges the instrument as his act, or made or signed the instrument or document under oath, shall be sufficient for all intents and purposes. The instrument or document shall not be rendered invalid by the failure to state the place of execution or acknowledgement.

Certificate.

Section 3. If the signature, rank and branch of service, or subdivision thereof, of any such commissioned officer appear upon such instrument or document or certificate, no further proof of the authority of such officer so to act shall be required; and such action by such commissioned officer shall be prima facie evidence that the person making such oath or acknowledgement is within the purview of this act.

Proof of authority of officer to so act.

Prima facie evidence.

Section 4. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 19th day of August, A. D. 1953.
