AN ACT

Amending the act of September twenty-six, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1505), entitled "An act to authorize the revival of judgments entered in favor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by filing a suggestion of nonpayment," authorizing the giving of notice by certified mail, return receipt requested.

Judgments.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1, act of September 26,
1951, P. L. 1505,
amended.

Section 1. Section one, act of September twenty-six, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1505), entitled "An act to authorize the revival of judgments entered in favor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by filing a suggestion of nonpayment," is amended to read:

Revival of judgment entered in favor of Commonwealth
by filing a suggestion of nonpayment
authorized in certain cases.

Section 1. Whenever a claim of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has been reduced to judgment and the claim has not been paid, then, in any such case, a suggestion of nonpayment may be filed in the county where the judgment was originally entered, with the prothonotary of said county, at any time within five years of the date of entry of the original judgment. After notice to all proper parties, by registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested, to their last known address or advertisement inserted in a newspaper in the county where the property is located, and no objection being filed within fifteen days after such service thereof, when indexed upon the judgment index the suggestion of nonpayment filed, as herein provided, shall revive the original judgment for a period of five years from the date of filing such suggestion of nonpayment, with the same force and effect as though a writ of scire facias had been issued, served on all proper parties, including real owners or terre-tenants, and duly prosecuted to judgment; and any judgment so revived shall remain a valid lien upon any real estate upon which it was a lien at the time the suggestion of nonpayment was filed and indexed upon the judgment index for a further period of five years, and may again be revived in like manner.

Judgment so revived to remain a valid lien for further period of five years.
