

under the United States, it being the intent hereby to eliminate the right of such occupancy, retained by the Commonwealth in the Act of the General Assembly of April 15, 1795, 3 Smith's Laws 223.

Section 2. The title to said real estate shall be taken in the name of the City of Philadelphia. All income from said property, including payments for licenses heretofore granted, will revert to the City of Philadelphia for the maintenance of Fort Mifflin. The City of Philadelphia is authorized to arrange for the construction of a fence and to comply with any and all conditions imposed by the United States of America. The Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor, is hereby authorized to execute the deed of conveyance of above tract, in the name of the Commonwealth, with the approval of the Department of Justice.

Title to be taken in name of City of Philadelphia.

Department of Property and Supplies, with approval of the Governor, authorized to execute a deed of conveyance, with the approval of the Department of Justice.

Section 4. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 10th day of May, A. D. 1956.

GEORGE M. LEADER

No. 523

AN ACT

Authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to acquire, by gift, the Old Brown's Mill building and project in Antrim Township, Franklin County; and providing for its maintenance and control.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Real Property.

Section 1. The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission is hereby authorized to acquire, by gift, in the name of the Commonwealth, as a landmark in the history of Pennsylvania education, from the Old Brown's Mill School Memorial Association of Antrim Township, Franklin County, owner thereof, the Old Brown's Mill building and project described as follows:

Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission authorized to acquire, by gift, certain land and building located in Franklin County.

Beginning at an iron pin at the intersection of a public road with the public road leading to Kauffman's Station; thence along line in the first mentioned public road north 45 degrees east 50 feet to an iron pin; thence along lands of the School District of Antrim Township south 47 degrees east 143.4 feet to a post; thence along lands of the Old Brown's Mill grave yard south 67 degrees west 125.4 feet to a point in the said road leading to Kauffman's Station; thence along line in said road north $131\frac{1}{2}$ degrees west 115.5 feet to an iron pin the place of beginning, containing 38.5 perches, more or less, of land.

Description.

And being the same land conveyed to the Old Brown's Mill School Memorial Association by deed of the School District of Antrim Township, Franklin County, dated January 7, 1935, and recorded in Franklin County, Deed Book number 252 at page 559.

Title to be approved by Department of Justice. Certain money to be paid to State Treasurer.

Section 2. The land shall not be acquired until its title has been approved by the Department of Justice and not before the sum of three thousand dollars ($3000) is paid by the Old Brown's Mill School Memorial Association into the State Treasury for use of the Historical and Museum Commission for the repair and maintenance of the building.

Further authority to accept, by gift, the assets of the Old Brown's Mill School Memorial Association.

Section 3. After title is acquired by the Commonwealth, the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission is authorized to acquire, by gift, all the assets of the Old Brown's Mill School Memorial Association, and the commission shall have power to adopt and carry into effect, plans for its maintenance using therefor any funds at the disposal of the commission, and to make and enforce rules and regulations for the preservation of the property and visitation thereof by the public.

APPROVED—The 11th day of May, A. D. 1956.

GEORGE M. LEADER

No. 524

AN ACT

Repealing the last paragraph of section five, act of May twenty-three, one thousand eight hundred seventy four (Pamphlet Laws 230), entitled "An act dividing the cities of this state into three classes, regulating the passage of ordinances, providing for contracts for supplies and work for said cities, authorizing the increase of indebtedness, and the creation of a sinking fund to redeem the same, defining and punishing certain offenses in all of said cities, and providing for the incorporation and government of cities of the third class," which requires publication each year of a statement of all delinquent taxpayers in cities of the first class.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Last paragraph of section 5, act of May 23, 1874, P. L. 230, repealed.

Section 1. The last paragraph of section five, act of May 23, one thousand eight hundred seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws 230), entitled "An act dividing the cities of this state into three classes, regulating the passage of ordinances, providing for contracts for supplies and work for said cities, authorizing the increase of in-