

the remaining governments and in full force and effect as to the government affected as to all severable matters. It is the intent that the provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed.

Section 3. The Secretary of the Commonwealth is hereby designated as the officer to receive all documents deposited pursuant to articles six and seven of the interpleader compact. The Secretary of the Commonwealth is also directed to act as the repository for all such documents and to keep and make available upon request a complete list of the states with which this Commonwealth is party to the interpleader compact together with such other information as may be in his possession concerning the status of such compact in respect to enactment and withdrawals therefrom.

Duties of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Section 4. As used in paragraph (c) of article seven of the interpleader compact the phrase "executive head" shall mean the Governor of this Commonwealth. In the event that the Governor takes any action pursuant to paragraph (c) of article seven of the interpleader compact he shall promptly notify the Secretary of the Commonwealth and shall deposit with him copies of all official communications and documents relating to the action.

Definition of "executive head"

Section 5. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

AN ACT

To amend clause (2) of the second paragraph of section 493, as amended, of the act, approved the twelfth day of April, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto; regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engaged or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships, for the abatement of certain nuisances and, in certain cases, for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option, and repealing existing laws," by permitting sales on credit of liquor, malt or brewed beverages by railroad or pullman companies in dining, club or buffet cars to passengers, for consumption while enroute, holding authorized credit cards issued by railroad or railroad credit bureaus.

Liquor Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Clause (2),
second paragraph, section
493, act of April
12, 1951, P. L.
90, amended.

Section 1. Clause (2) of the second paragraph of section four hundred ninety-three of the act, approved the twelfth day of April, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto; regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engaged or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships, for the abatement of certain nuisances and, in certain cases, for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option, and repealing existing laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 493. Unlawful Acts Relative to Liquor, Malt and Brewed Beverages and Licensees.—The term "licensee," when used in this section, shall mean those persons licensed under the provisions of Article IV., unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

It shall be unlawful—

Purchase or sale
of liquor or malt or brewed beverages on credit.

(2) For any licensee, his agent, servant or employe, to sell or offer to sell or purchase or receive any liquor or malt or brewed beverages except for cash, excepting credit extended by a hotel or club to a bona fide guest or member, or by railroad or pullman companies in dining, club or buffet cars to passengers, for consumption while enroute, holding authorized credit cards issued by railroad or railroad credit bureaus; no right of action shall exist to collect any claim for credit extended contrary to the provisions of this clause. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit a licensee from crediting to a purchaser the actual price charged for original containers returned by the original purchaser as a credit on any sale, or from refunding to any purchaser the amount paid by such purchaser for such containers or as a deposit on containers when title is retained by the vendor, if such original containers have been returned to the licensee. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit a manufacturer from extending usual and customary credit for liquor or malt or brewed beverages sold to customers or purchasers who live or maintain places of business outside of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, when the liquor or malt or brewed beverages so sold are actually transported and delivered to points outside of the Commonwealth: Provided, however, That as to all transactions affecting malt or brewed beverages to be resold or consumed within this Commonwealth, every licensee shall pay and shall require cash deposits on all returnable original containers which contain not more than one hundred twenty-eight fluid ounces, and all such cash deposits shall be refunded upon return of the original containers.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment. Act effective immediately
