

No. 563
AN ACT

To repeal the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws 642), entitled "An act for the protection of the public health: by providing that persons, firms, or corporations, who are operating or conducting hotels, restaurants, dining-cars, or other public eating-places in this Commonwealth, shall not employ or keep in their employ, as cooks, waiters, kitchen-help, chambermaids, or other house-servants, any person or persons who are suffering from trachoma, active tuberculosis of the lungs, open skin tuberculosis, syphilis, gonorrhoea, open external cancer, or barber's itch, or who are carriers of typhoid fever; and further providing that no dishes, receptacles, or utensils used in eating or drinking shall be furnished to patrons or customers of any such public eating-place, unless the same have been thoroughly cleansed since used by another individual; and further providing that no towels shall be furnished in any wash-room, in connection with any such public eating-place, unless such towels be laundered or discarded after each individual use; and further providing that no common drinking-cups shall be furnished at any public drinking-place operated in connection with any such public eating-place; and providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act."

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Public Health.

Section 1. The act approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws 642), entitled "An act for the protection of the public health: by providing that persons, firms, or corporations, who are operating or conducting hotels, restaurants, dining-cars, or other public eating-places in this Commonwealth, shall not employ or keep in their employ, as cooks, waiters, kitchen-help, chambermaids, or other house-servants, any person or persons who are suffering from trachoma, active tuberculosis of the lungs, open skin tuberculosis, syphilis, gonorrhoea, open external cancer, or barber's itch, or who are carriers of typhoid fever; and further providing that no dishes, receptacles, or utensils used in eating or drinking shall be furnished to patrons or customers of any such public eating-place, unless the same have been thoroughly cleansed since used by another individual; and further providing that no towels shall be furnished in any wash-room, in connection with any such public eating-place, unless such towels be laundered or discarded after each individual use; and further providing that no common drinking-cups shall be furnished at any public drinking-place operated in connection with any such public eating-place; and providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act," and all of its amendments and supplements, are hereby repealed absolutely.

Act of May 28,
1915, P. L. 642, and all amendments and supplements, repealed.
