

centum (100%) of the contract price, as such township may prescribe, having as surety thereon one or more surety companies legally authorized to do business in this Commonwealth, conditioned for the prompt payment of all material furnished and labor supplied or performed in the prosecution of the work, whether or not the said material or labor enter in and become component parts of the work or improvement contemplated. Such additional bond shall be deposited with and held by the township for the use of any party interested therein. Every such additional bond shall provide that every person, copartnership, association, or corporation, who, whether as sub-contractor or otherwise, has furnished material or supplied or performed labor in the prosecution of the work as above provided, and who has not been paid therefor, may sue in assumpsit on said additional bond, in the name of the township, for his, their, or its use and prosecute the same to final judgment for such sum or sums as may be justly due him, them, or it, and have execution thereon: Provided, however, That the township shall not be liable for the payment of any costs or expense of any suit.

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," further regulating bonds to be given for protection of labor and materialmen.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Second Class Township Code.

Section 1. Section 803, act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103), known as "The Second Class Township Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1481), is amended to read:

Section 803, act
of May 1, 1933,
P. L. 103, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L.
1481, further amended.

Section 803. Bonds for Protection of Labor and Materialmen.—It shall be the duty of every township to require any person, copartnership, association, or corporation, entering into a contract with such township for the construction, erection, installation, completion, alteration, repair of, or addition to, any public work or improvement of any kind whatsoever, where the amount of such contract is in excess of [five hundred] one thousand dollars, before commencing work under such contract, to execute and deliver to such township, in addition to any other bond which may now or hereafter be required by law to be given in connection with such contract, an additional bond, for the use of any and every person, copartnership, association, or corporation interested, in a sum not less than fifty per centum and not more than one hundred per centum of the liability under the contract, as such township may prescribe, having as surety thereon one or more surety companies legally authorized to do business in this Commonwealth, conditioned for the prompt payment of all material furnished and labor supplied or performed in the prosecution of the work, whether or not the said material or labor enter in and become component parts of the work or improvement contemplated. Such additional bond shall be deposited with and held by the township for the use of any party interested therein. Every such additional bond shall provide that every person, copartnership, association, or corporation who, whether as subcontractor or otherwise, has furnished material or supplied or performed labor in the prosecution of the work as above provided, and who has not been paid therefor, may sue in assumpsit on said additional bond in the name of the township for his, their, or its use and prosecute the same to final judgment for such sum or sums as may be justly due him, them, or it, and have execution thereon: Provided, however, That the township shall not be liable for the payment of any costs or expense of any suit.

APPROVED—The 30th day of June, A. D. 1959.
