

refer, in publishing the ordinance, to the place where such maps, plans or drawings are on file and may be examined. In the adoption of any ordinance setting up a building code, plumbing code, zoning code and such amendments to a zoning code as amounts to a complete code in itself or other code complete in itself, for the regulation of any trade, occupation or line of activity, or undertaking, it shall not be required (this or any other law to the contrary notwithstanding) in publishing such ordinance to publish such code in full, but it shall be sufficient compliance with this act in such publication to set forth briefly the substance of such proposed code, and to give notice of the place where such code is on file and may be examined. In cases of zoning additional notice must be given of the place where the zone maps are on file and may be examined.

Complaint as to the legality of any ordinance or resolution may be made to the court of quarter sessions upon entering into bond with sufficient security to be approved by the court to prosecute the same with effect and for the payment of costs by any person aggrieved, within thirty days after any ordinance or resolution takes effect. The determination and the order of the court thereon shall be conclusive. In cases of the laying out of streets over private property the court shall have jurisdiction to review the propriety as well as the legality of the ordinance.

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," extending the jurisdiction of borough policemen to include property outside the borough owned or controlled by the borough.

The Borough Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1125, act of May 4, 1927, P. L. 519, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L. 1621, further amended.

Section 1. Section 1125, act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), known as "The Borough Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1621), is amended to read:

Section 1125. Appointment, Suspension, Reduction, Discharge Powers; Burgess to Have Control.—Borough councils may, subject to the civil service provisions of this act, if they be in effect at the time, appoint and remove, or suspend, or reduce in rank, one or more suitable persons, citizens of this Commonwealth, as borough policemen, who shall be ex-officio constables of the borough and shall and may, within the borough or upon property owned or controlled by the borough or by a municipal authority of the borough whether such property is within or outside the limits of the borough, without warrant and upon view, arrest and commit for hearing any and all persons guilty of breach of the peace, vagrancy, riotous or disorderly conduct or drunkenness, or who may be engaged in the commission of any unlawful act tending to imperil the personal security or endanger the property of the citizens, or for violating any ordinance of the borough for the violation of which a fine or penalty is imposed, and notwithstanding any statute pertaining to the same or similar offenses. Any person so arrested shall be received for confinement by the keepers of the jails, lockups, or station houses within the county.

The borough council may designate one of said policemen as chief of police. The burgess of the borough shall have full charge and control of the chief of police and the police force, and he shall direct the time during which, the place where, and the manner in which, the chief of police and the police force shall perform their duties.

Policemen shall have authority to serve and execute all criminal process for the violation of borough ordinances which may be issued by the burgess, and shall charge the same fees and costs as constables of the borough, but such fees and costs shall be collected by the burgess and by him paid into the borough treasury.

The borough may by ordinance establish a police department consisting of chief, captain, lieutenant, sergeants, or any other classification desired by the council, and council may, subject to the civil service provisions of this act, if they be in effect at the time, designate the individuals assigned to each office, but the burgess shall continue to direct the manner in which the persons assigned to the office shall perform their duties. The burgess may, however, delegate to the chief of police or other officers supervision over and instruction to subordinate officers in the manner of performing their duties. The burgess may appoint special policemen during an emergency in which the safety and welfare of the borough and the public is endangered.

The borough council may assign the chief of police or any member of the police force to undergo a course of training at any training school for policemen established and made available by the State or Federal Government, and may provide for the payment by the borough of his expenses while in attendance in such school.

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," providing for an assistant borough secretary.

The Borough Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Act of May 4, 1927, P. L. 519, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L. 1621, amended by adding a new section 1110.1.

Section 1. The act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), known as "The Borough Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1621), is amended by adding, after section 1110, a new section to read:

Section 1110.1. Assistant Secretary.—Every borough council may, by resolution, appoint an assistant secretary who shall, in the absence or disability of the secretary, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the secretary. The assistant secretary may be appointed from the membership of the borough council, but shall not be any other officer thereof.
