

reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof, (g) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, (h) the terms and provisions of any deed or trust or indenture securing the bonds or under which the same may be issued, and (i) any other or additional agreements with the holders of the bonds.

The Authority may enter into any deeds of trust, indentures or other agreements with any bank or trust company or other person or persons in the United States having power to enter into the same, including any Federal agency, as security for such bonds, and may assign and pledge all or any of the revenues, rentals, or receipts of the Authority thereunder. Such deed of trust, indenture or other agreement may contain such provisions as may be customary in such instruments or as the Authority may authorize, including (but without limitation) provisions as to—(i) the construction, improvement, operation, equipping, furnishing, maintenance, and repair of any project or projects and the duties of the Authority with reference thereto, (ii) the application of funds and the safeguarding of funds on hand or on deposit, (iii) the rights and remedies of said trustees and the holders of the bonds (which may include restrictions upon the individual right of action of such bondholders), and (iv) the terms and provisions of the bonds or the resolutions authorizing the issuance of the same.

Said bonds shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the law merchant and the negotiable instruments law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

APPROVED—The 28th day of March, A. D. 1961.
