

No. 62

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," authorizing boroughs to have a recreation board of either five or seven members.

The Borough Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 2714, act of May 4, 1927, P. L. 519, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L. 1621, further amended.

Section 1. Section 2714, act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), known as "The Borough Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1621), is amended to read:

Section 2714. Composition of Board.—If the borough council shall determine that the power to equip, operate, and maintain recreation places, shall be exercised by a recreation board, they may establish in said borough such recreation board, which shall possess all the powers, and be subject to all the responsibilities, of the respective authorities under this article. Such board [when established] shall consist of five or seven persons as borough council may, by ordinance, determine, and when established in a borough, having a school board, if the board consists of five members, two of the members may be members or appointees of the school board. If the board consists of seven members, three of the members may be members or appointees of the school board. The members of the board shall be appointed by the council of such borough, and shall serve for terms of five years, or until their successors are appointed, except that the members of such board, first appointed, shall be appointed for such terms that the term of one member shall expire annually thereafter. Members of such board shall serve without pay. Women shall be eligible for appointment. Vacancies in such board, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term, shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments.

APPROVED—The 28th day of April, A. D. 1961.
