

appraisal given, in writing, by three (3) or more persons competent to give appraisal by reason of being a manufacturer, dealer or user of such furniture or equipment. In no instance shall the school district pay more than the average of such appraised values. Necessary costs of securing such appraised values may be paid by the school district. Provided when appraised value is determined to be more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), purchase may be made only after public notice has been given by advertisement once a week for three (3) weeks in not less than two (2) newspapers of general circulation. In any district where no newspaper is published, said notice may, in lieu of such publication, be posted in at least five (5) public places. Such advertisement shall specify the items to be purchased, name the vendor, state the proposed purchase price, and state the time and place of the public meeting at which such proposed purchase shall be considered by the board of school directors.

No. 163

AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," removing provisions relating to archery preserves.

The Game Law.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 317, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended June 14, 1957, P. L. 307, further amended.

Hunting licenses.

Land owner, lessee or tenant cultivating land, employes and family residing thereon, not required to have license to hunt or trap on such land.

Section 1. Section 317, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended June 14, 1957 (P. L. 307), is amended to read:

Section 317. Legal Hunting or Trapping by Residents Without License.—Unless the right to procure a license or to hunt or trap anywhere within the Commonwealth has been denied under the provisions of this act, any citizen of the United States residing within this Commonwealth who is regularly and continuously engaged in cultivating the soil for general farm crop purposes, commercial truck growing, commercial orchards or commercial nurseries, as either the owner or lessee or tenant of said lands, or as a member of the family or household or regularly hired help of such owner or lessee or tenant, shall be eligible to hunt and trap on said lands, including the woodlands connected therewith and operated as a part thereof, without a resident hunter's license or an archery license, [or an archery preserve permit] if such owner, lessee, tenant, member of the family or household or hired help resides in a dwelling situated upon the property so being cultivated and shall have continuously resided thereon and assisted in the cultivation of said land for a period of sixty or more days prior to the general open hunting or trapping season.

Any of the *persons enumerated above who shall be eligible to hunt or trap on certain lands without securing a resident hunter's license or an archery license, [or an archery preserve permit] also may, by and with the written consent of the owner or lessee thereof, hunt or trap upon any lands other than those publicly-owned which lie immediately adjacent and are connected with the lands upon which such persons may lawfully hunt or trap without securing a license [or permit].

Such persons need no license to hunt on adjacent land with consent of owner.

Section 2. The second paragraph of subsection (e) of section 501 of the act, amended June 14, 1957 (P. L. 307) and June 28, 1957 (P. L. 398), is amended to read:

Second paragraph, subsection (e), section 501 of the act, amended June 14, 1957, P. L. 307 and June 28, 1957, P. L. 398, further amended.

Section 501. Open Seasons.—

(e) Open Season For Hunting Deer with Bows and Arrows.—

* * * * *

No person shall hunt for or kill any deer during such additional open archery season with bow and arrow without first having secured a hunting license and, in addition thereto, an archery license from the Department of Revenue or county treasurer when designated as an issuing agent of the Department of Revenue, the fee for which is hereby fixed at two dollars. Such license shall be attached to the hunter's license certificate for the current year and shall be countersigned in ink diagonally across its face by the licensee before hunting in the open season herein provided for. [Any person securing an archery license under the provisions of this subsection shall also be entitled to hunt for and kill game, of any kind during a lawful open season with bow and arrow on the archery preserves provided for under section nine hundred thirty-six, without securing the permit required in that section; and any person securing the archery preserve permit under the provisions of section nine hundred thirty-six shall be entitled to hunt for and kill deer with bow and arrow during the open archery season provided for in this subsection, without securing the archery license herein provided for.]

Hunting license required.
