AN ACT

Amending the act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," authorizing disturbing the peace to be defined and penalized, and providing for disposition of such penalties.

The Second Class Township Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Clause XLVII. of section 702, act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103), known as "The Second Class Township Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1481) and amended July 2, 1953 (P. L. 354), is amended to read:

Clause XLVII., section 702, act of May 1, 1933, P. L. 103, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L. 1481, and amended July 2, 1953, P. L. 354, further amended.

Section 702. Supervisors to Exercise Powers.—The corporate powers of townships of the second class shall be exercised by the township supervisors. Where no specific authority is given for the expenditures incident to the exercise of any power hereinafter conferred, or where no specific fund is designated from which such expenditures shall be made, appropriations for such expenditures shall be made only from the general township fund. In addition to the duties imposed upon them by section 516 hereof, they shall have power—

* * * * *

XLVII. Public Safety.—To take all needful means for securing the safety of persons or property within the township, including the [control of disorderly practices] power to adopt ordinances defining disturbing the peace within the limits of the township and to provide in such ordinances for the imposition of penalties for the violation thereof, but such penalties shall not be in excess of twenty-five dollars notwithstanding like statutes pertaining to the same or similar offenses. All penalties imposed for the violation of such ordinances shall be paid to the township treasurer for the use of the township.
