Pennsylvania
Election Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1206, act
of June 3, 1937,
P. L. 1333, amended June 19, 1939, P. L.
449, further amended.

Section 1. Section 1206, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1333), known as the "Pennsylvania Election Code," amended June 19, 1939 (P. L. 449), is amended to read:

Section 1206. Duties of Common Pleas Court on Days of Primaries and Elections.—The court of common pleas of each county of the Commonwealth or a judge or judges thereof, shall be in continuous session at the courthouse of said county, or, in judicial districts composed of more than one county, at the courthouse of the county in which such judge or judges reside, on the day of each primary and election from 7 o'clock A. M. until 10 o'clock P. M. and so long thereafter as it may appear that the process of said court will be necessary to secure a free, fair and correct computation and canvass of the votes cast at said election. In judicial districts having but one judge of the court of common pleas, such judge shall not be required to be in session, as aforesaid, between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 2 o'clock P. M., nor between the hours of 5:30 o'clock P. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. During such period said court shall act as a committing magistrate for any violation of the election laws; shall settle summarily controversies that may arise with respect to the conduct of the election; shall issue process, if necessary, to enforce and secure compliance with the election laws; and shall decide such other matters pertaining to the election as may be necessary to carry out the intent of this act; and in counties of the third class shall have power to appoint additional clerks at the polling places where needed and requested by the election board: Provided, That for each clerk appointed from the majority political party, a clerk from the minority political party must also be appointed.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 13th day of July, A. D. 1961.
