

charges are payable, (f) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof, (g) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, (h) the terms and provisions of any deed or trust or indenture securing the bonds or under which the same may be issued, and (i) any other or additional agreements with the holders of the bonds.

The Authority may enter into any deeds of trust, indentures or other agreements with any bank or trust company or other person or persons in the United States having power to enter into the same, including any Federal agency, as security for such bonds, and may assign and pledge all or any of the revenues, rentals, or receipts of the Authority thereunder. Such deed of trust, indenture or other agreement may contain such provisions as may be customary in such instruments or as the Authority may authorize, including (but without limitation) provisions as to—(i) the construction, improvement, operation, equipping, furnishing, maintenance, and repair of any project or projects and the duties of the Authority with reference thereto, (ii) the application of funds and the safeguarding of funds on hand or on deposit, (iii) the rights and remedies of said trustees and the holders of the bonds (which may include restrictions upon the individual right of action of such bondholders), and (iv) the terms and provisions of the bonds or the resolutions authorizing the issuance of the same.

Said bonds shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the law merchant and the negotiable instruments law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

AN ACT

Fixing maximum hours of service for policemen in cities of the second class A.

Cities of second class A.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Forty hours duty week.

Section 1. No policeman employed by a city of the second class A shall be required to be on duty for more than forty hours in any calendar week, except in emergency cases for the suppression of riots or tumults or the preservation of the public peace in times of riot, conflagration or public celebrations. The existing salary or compensation of any policeman shall not be diminished because of the reduced number of hours of duty prescribed by this act.

Section 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 1964. Effective date.

APPROVED—The 21st day of June, A. D. 1963.

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 289), entitled "An act relating to nonprofit corporations; defining and providing for the organization, merger, consolidation, and dissolution of such corporations; conferring certain rights, powers, duties, and immunities upon them and their officers and members; prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers; providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the first class within the provisions of this act; prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign nonprofit corporations may be admitted or may continue to do business within the Commonwealth; conferring powers and imposing duties on the courts of common pleas, prothonotaries of such courts, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; authorizing certain local public officers and State departments to collect fees for services required to be rendered by this act; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations," authorizing the appointment of police by cemetery corporations.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Nonprofit
Corporation Law.

Section 1. Section 310, act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 289), known as the "Nonprofit Corporation Law," is amended to read:

Section 310, act
of May 5, 1933,
P. L. 289, amended.

Section 310. Appointment and Powers of Policemen.—Any nonprofit corporation maintaining a cemetery or any buildings or grounds open to the public, or organized for the prevention of cruelty to children and aged persons, may apply to any judge of the court of common pleas of the county within which the property of such corporation is situated for the appointment of such persons as the corporation may designate to act as policemen for the corporation. The court, upon such application, may order and decree such persons, or as many of them as it may deem proper and necessary, to be such policemen. Every policeman so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath required by the seventh article of the Constitution, before the recorder of deeds of the county in which it is intended that such policeman shall act.
