AN ACT

Amending the act of May 15, 1874 (P. L. 186), entitled "An act declaring what offices are incompatible," making the office of alderman or justice of the peace incompatible with the office of treasurer, tax collector or assessor of any city, borough, town or township of the first class and with the office of tax collector, assessor, secretary or secretary-treasurer of any township of the second class.

Incompatible offices.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Act of May 15, 1874, P. L. 186, amended by adding a new section 5.1.

Section 1. The act of May 15, 1874 (P. L. 186), entitled "An act declaring what offices are incompatible," is amended by adding, after section 5, a new section to read:

Section 5.1. The office of alderman or justice of the peace shall be incompatible with the office of treasurer or tax collector or assessor of any city, borough, town or township of the first class and with the office of secretary or secretary-treasurer or tax collector or assessor of any township of the second class.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately, but shall not apply to any person holding two such offices on the effective date of this act until the expiration of the term of either of said offices, and shall not apply to any person nominated to any such office prior to the effective date of this act and elected thereto prior to January 1, 1964.

Effective date and applicability.

APPROVED—The 1st day of August, A. D. 1963.
