AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," increasing the resident hunting license fee, providing specially for the fee to be charged certain minors, and removing obsolete provisions.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Game Law.

Section 1. Section 302, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended April 6, 1949 (P. L. 403) and May 9, 1949 (P. L. 958), is amended to read:

Section 302, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended April 6, 1949, P. L. 403 and May 9, 1949, P. L. 958, further amended.

Section 302. Resident License Fees.—Each such resident as provided in the preceding section, upon application made, in writing, to any agent authorized to issue such licenses within the Commonwealth, the presentation of proof that he is a citizen of the United States and a bonafide resident of this Commonwealth under the requirements of this article, and the establishment of his identity to the satisfaction of the authority issuing the license, or to the satisfaction of the justice of the peace, magistrate, or notary public, or any agent designated to receive applications for licenses, when taking such applications as hereinafter authorized, by producing a bank book, letters, lodge cards, police cards, a motor vehicle driver's license, or some other positive means of identification, and, in the case of naturalized foreign-born applicants, the production of such applicant's naturalization papers, unless any such person has been disqualified for a license in the manner hereinafter specified, and the payment to said agent or the Department of Revenue of [two dollars ($2.00)] five dollars and twenty cents ($5.20), except as hereinafter provided for certain minors, shall be entitled to a resident hunter's license and a tag with the number of the license thereon, which shall entitle the holder to hunt or trap for all wild birds and wild animals which may legally be hunted or trapped in this Commonwealth [, until the close of the license year. Licenses valid for use thereafter by residents shall be as follows:

To hunt or trap for all wild birds and wild animals which may be legally hunted or trapped in this Commonwealth, three dollars and fifteen cents ($3.15)]. Residents with the above qualifications, who are between the ages of twelve and sixteen inclusive at the time of application, shall be entitled to a resident hunter's license and tag upon payment to said agent or the Department of Revenue of three dollars and twenty cents ($3.20).

The application for the issuance of a license in such cases shall, in addition to the other information required, give the date of birth of the applicant.

Any resident disabled veteran of any war whose disability consists of the loss of one or more limbs or the loss of the use of one or more limbs and who meets the above qualifications shall be issued such license upon application to any county treasurer without the payment of the above license fee provided for the use of the Commonwealth. The application for the issuance of a license in such case shall in addition to the other information required, contain a statement that the applicant is a war veteran and that his disability was service incurred. The county treasurer may likewise require of such applicant the production of such applicant's discharge papers.

[For the duration of the present war any person with the above qualifications who is in service with the Armed Forces of the United States, or any of its Allies, shall be issued such license upon application to any county treasurer within the Commonwealth without the payment of the above license fee provided for the use of the Commonwealth.

The application for the issuance of a license in such case, shall, in addition to the other information required, give the serial number of the branch of service to which the applicant is attached, together with the applicant's rank, company, battalion, regiment, division, and other military organization.]

Applicability.

Section 2. The increase in license fees provided for in this amending act shall be applicable to licenses issued for the license period beginning September 1, 1963.

APPROVED—The 6th day of August, A. D. 1963.
