No. 288

AN ACT

Increasing the number of courts of common pleas in the County of Philadelphia; establishing therein a distinct and separate court of common pleas designated Court of Common Pleas Number Eight; and providing for the appointment and election of judges for said court.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Philadelphia County.

Section 1. There is established in the County of Philadelphia a distinct and separate court of common pleas, to be designated Court of Common Pleas Number Eight of Philadelphia County, composed of three judges, learned in the law, who shall hold office for the same term and with like powers, duties, authority and compensation, and with like and equal constitution and coordinate jurisdiction with Courts of Common Pleas Number One, Two, Three, Four, Five, Six and Seven of the County and the judges thereof, respectively.

Common Pleas Court No. 8 authorized.

Section 2. In addition to the judges provided for in the act of January 8, 1952 (P. L. 1844), entitled "An act to designate the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth, as required by the Constitution, and to provide for the election and commissioning of judges learned in the law for the said districts," three judges of the Court of Common Pleas Number Eight of Philadelphia County, learned in the law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county at the municipal election in November, 1965, and the candidates who then receive the highest vote shall be declared elected. One of the judges of the court shall be designated as required by the Constitution of the Commonwealth as the president judge of the court. The judges shall be duly commissioned as judges aforesaid and shall enter upon the discharge of their duties respectively on the first Monday of January next following their election. The successors of said judges, respectively, shall be elected or appointed as required by law.

Election.
