AN ACT

Enabling and authorizing the Commissioner of Professional and Occupational Affairs or any of the administrative boards, commissions or officers within the Department of State or otherwise under his supervision to proceed by injunction or any other process in the court of common pleas in any county where the alleged unauthorized practice was committed to prohibit and restrain any unlicensed person, association, copartnership or corporation from engaging in an activity for which a license is required to be issued by the Commissioner of Professional and Occupational Affairs, and to set out the method and procedure therefor.

Commissioner of Professional and Occupational Affairs.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Commissioner authorized upon advice of Attorney General, to enjoin unauthorized practice of any profession requiring a license.

Section 1. The Commissioner of Professional and Occupational Affairs or any of the administrative boards, commissions or officers within the Department of State or otherwise under his supervision, upon the advice of the Attorney General, may maintain as hereinafter provided an action in the name of the Commonwealth for an injunction or other process against any person to restrain or prevent his practicing any profession in a public or private capacity or engaging in any trade or occupation without a license whenever a license to engage in such activity is required by law and such licenses are issued by the Commissioner of Professional and Occupational Affairs.

Section 2. Any such action shall be instituted in the court of common pleas in any county where the alleged unauthorized practice was committed. Such court may issue a temporary restraining order or injunction under this act, but shall determine any such action on its merits as soon as convenient whether in term time or in vacation. Appeals from any final decision of such court to the Superior or Supreme Court shall be as in similar cases.

Institution of suit in county court of unauthorized practice, orders and appeals.

Section 3. No bond shall be required of, and no costs shall be taxed against, the Commissioner of Professional and Occupational Affairs or any of the administrative boards, commissions or officers within the Department of State or otherwise under his supervision.

Bond not required.

Section 4. The provisions of this act shall be construed as supplementary to all other acts dealing with the same subject matter. No action brought under the provisions of this act shall prevent the prosecution or institution of any civil or criminal action otherwise provided by law for violation of any licensing act or departmental rule or regulation promulgated thereunder.

Construction.

APPROVED—The 8th day of August, A. D. 1963.
