AN ACT

HB 913

Amending the act of June 1, 1959 (P. L. 392), entitled "An act relating to the retirement of State employes; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," providing optional disability and retirement benefits for Class E and Class E.1 employes, under certain terms and conditions.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 301, act of June 1, 1959 (P. L. 392), known as the "State Employes' Retirement Code of 1959," is amended by adding a new subsection at the end thereof to read:

Section 301. Members' Contributions on Account of Current Service.—

* * *

(5) Any member of Class E or E.1, who is receiving benefits as provided in section 401 (4) or section 405 (5) shall, so long as he is receiving such benefits, pay into the fund monthly an amount equal to the contribution he would have paid with respect to such month had he not retired but continued to be employed at the same salary. The Commonwealth shall during the same period pay the same contribution it would otherwise pay had he not retired but continued to be employed at the same salary.

Section 2. Section 401 of the act is amended by adding a new subsection at the end thereof to read:

Section 401. Superannuation Retirement Allowances.—

* * *

(4) Any member of Class E or E.1 who has retired, who has either actively served in such office by virtue of appointment or election for at least thirty (30) years continuously or otherwise regardless of age, or who has attained the age of seventy (70) years, who has served at least one full elected term or ten (10) years in the aggregate as a judge continuously or otherwise, and who shall hold himself in readiness to advise with his successor and his colleagues of the court of which he had been a member, and to perform such duties as may be imposed upon him as judge, special master, referee, auditor, or examiner, in such ways as he may reasonably be able to do, as assigned by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, may elect to receive during a period of time equal to the unexpired portion of his term or until death, whichever first occurs, a sum equal to the salary he was receiving immediately prior to his retirement. During the period that he is receiving such benefits such member shall not be permitted to practice as an attorney and shall receive no additional compensation for performing any judicial duties except retirement benefits as provided herein. Upon expiration of the aforesaid period of time, such member shall be entitled to receive the benefits, provided by the other provisions of this act, which he shall have earned by his service, including in the computation thereof the period of time during which he was receiving the benefits of this section 401 (4) and sections 301 (5) and 405 (5).

Section 3. Section 405 of the act is amended by adding a new subsection at the end thereof to read:

Section 405. Disability Allowances.—

(5) Any member of Class E or E.1, who by reason of physical or mental disability, shall become permanently incapacitated from performing his regular judicial functions or duties, and who shall hold himself in readiness to advise with his successor and his colleagues and perform such duties as may be imposed upon him as judge, special master, referee, auditor, or examiner, in such ways as he may reasonably be able to do, as assigned by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, may, irrespective of length of service or age, retire and elect to receive during a period of time equal to the unexpired portion of his term or until death, whichever first occurs, a sum equal to the salary he was receiving immediately prior to his retirement. During the period that he is receiving such benefits such member shall not be permitted to practice as an attorney and shall receive no additional compensation for performing any judicial duties except retirement benefits as provided herein. Upon expiration of the aforesaid period of time, such member shall be entitled to receive the benefits provided by the other provisions of this act, which he shall have earned by his service, including in the computation thereof the period of time during which he was receiving the benefits of this section 405 (5) and sections 301 (5) and 401 (4).
