

No. 184

AN ACT

HB 1255

Amending the act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," further providing for the consolidation, codification or revision of ordinances.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Clause XLI.I of section 702, act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103), known as "The Second Class Township Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1481) and added October 21, 1959 (P. L. 1333), is amended to read:

Section 702. Supervisors to Exercise Powers.—The corporate powers of townships of the second class shall be exercised by the township supervisors. Where no specific authority is given for the expenditures incident to the exercise of any power hereinafter conferred, or where no specific fund is designated from which such expenditures shall be made, appropriations for such expenditures shall be made only from the general township fund. In addition to the duties imposed upon them by section 516 hereof, they shall have power—

XLI.I. Consolidation, Codification or Revision of Ordinances.—

Whenever any township shall have caused to be prepared a consolidation [or codification], codification or revision of the general body of township ordinances or the ordinances on a particular subject, the township supervisors may adopt such consolidation [or codification], codification or revision as an ordinance of the township, in the same manner that is now prescribed by law for the adoption of township ordinances, except [it shall not be necessary to publish the entire text thereof, but it shall be sufficient in any such case to publish or advertise the table of contents thereof in the manner provided by law for the publication of ordinances. Such publication shall, in addition to setting forth the table of contents, specify that the ordinance is only a consolidation or codification of existing ordinances or ordinances on a particular subject, and shall indicate a place within the township where a copy thereof may be examined] as hereinafter provided.

Any such consolidation, codification or revision of township ordinances to be enacted as a single ordinance shall be introduced in the board of township supervisors at least thirty days before its final enactment, and at least fifteen days before its final enactment, notice of the introduction of any consolidation, codification or revision, specifying its general nature and listing its table of contents, shall be given by advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in said township.

When any such consolidation, codification or revision has been enacted as an ordinance, it shall not be necessary to advertise the entire text thereof, but it shall be sufficient in any such case, to publish a notice stating that such consolidation, codification or revision, notice of the introduction of which had previously been given, was finally enacted.

The procedure set forth in this clause for the consolidation or codification of township ordinances as a single ordinance may also be followed in enacting a complete group or body of ordinances, repealing or amending existing ordinances as may be necessary in the course of preparing a consolidation [or codification], codification or revision of the township ordinances, except that in such case the [publication] advertisement giving notice of the introduction shall list, in lieu of a table of contents, the titles only of each of the ordinances in such complete group or body of ordinances.
