SB 131

Amending the act of June 1, 1959 (P. L. 350), entitled "An act relating to the retirement of public school employes; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," reducing the required period of employment of former school employes to be eligible for compensation.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (1) of section 407, act of June 1, 1959

(P. L. 350), known as the "Public School Employes' Retirement Code of 1959," amended June 30, 1965 (P. L. 167), is amended to read:

Section 407. Minimum Benefits to Former School Employes.—

(1) Any person sixty-two (62) years of age or older who was a classroom teacher, principal, supervising principal or superintendent in the public schools of Pennsylvania for at least [twenty (20)] fourteen (14) years and who separated from school service for any reason prior to July 1, 1919, and who was not thereafter engaged in school service, except temporarily for not more than two (2) whole school years, or any person who was a classroom teacher, principal, supervising principal or superintendent in the public schools of Pennsylvania for at least fourteen (14) years and who separated from school service because of physical or mental disability prior to July 1, 1919, and who still is unable to teach because of such disability, shall receive a State compensation of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per month, if such former teacher shall agree, in writing, and hold himself ready under the direction of the board of school directors to advise and counsel with school officials, to visit and counsel with new teachers, to act as substitute teacher when able, to examine and report on public school work, to visit pupils' homes in the interests of child welfare, to attend educational conferences and addresses and to be concerned with other educational work as may be deemed necessary and helpful to community-school interests. Any State compensation payable under this subsection to any person who is receiving a retirement allowance under the provisions of a local teachers' retirement system shall be reduced by the annual amount of the retirement allowance received from such local teachers' retirement system.
