AN ACT

SB 757

Making an appropriation to the Department of Justice for the payment of a claim of the United States against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Findings of Fact.—The Pennsylvania General Assembly, by act of May 31, 1945, P. L. 1212, authorized the acquisition of lands and the erection of buildings for the Pennsylvania Maritime Academy, which academy was subsequently determined to be located at Delaware River and Biles Creek, Pennsylvania.

The War Shipping Administration and the Maritime Commission of the United States were authorized by Public Law 630 of the 79th Congress, approved August 7, 1946, to make available or transfer to any state maintaining a maritime school or nautical branch, excess or surplus material, supplies and equipment for use in connection with the teaching and training of midshipmen, at such ports or other locations as might be designated by such state.

Pursuant thereto, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania received at the Pennsylvania Maritime Academy at Delaware River and Biles Creek, certain surplus or excess material, supplies and equipment from agencies of the United States government during September to December, 1946, which the United States valued at five hundred thousand eighty-four dollars and twenty-one cents ($500,084.21).

The Pennsylvania General Assembly, by act of May 22, 1947, P. L. 268, directed that the affairs of the Pennsylvania Nautical School be wound up and its existence be terminated as soon as practicable.

Thereafter, during the year 1947, the Secretary of Property and Supplies authorized the various departments and agencies of the Commonwealth to remove the United States donated property to their departments or schools for Commonwealth use.

Subsequently the United States Maritime Commission, in 1958, renewed its demand for return of the donated property, or payment of its value, and thereafter, in March of 1963, suit was instituted by the United States against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the United States District Court, Middle District of Pennsylvania, to No. 8051 for damages in the amount of five hundred thousand eighty-four dollars and twenty-one cents ($500,084.21), plus interest.

From said time until the present, negotiations were carried on between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and representatives of the United States Department of Justice relating to an amicable adjustment of said claim. On March 16, 1967, a settlement of the claim was reached in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

Section 2. Appropriation.—The sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or as much thereof as is necessary, is appropriated to the Department of Justice for the purpose of paying the claim of the United States against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania described in section 1 of this act.

Section 3. Effective Date.—This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 23rd day of August, A. D. 1967.
