

Being a part of the same premises which were conveyed to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by Deed of Elmer R. Kauffman et ux, et al., dated October 5, 1946, and recorded in Lebanon County Deed Book "Corp," Volume 9, Page 690.

The transfer shall be made under and subject, nevertheless, to all easements, servitudes and rights of others, including, but not confined to, streets, roadways, and rights of any telephone, telegraph, water, electric, gas, or pipeline companies, as well as under and subject, nevertheless, to any estate or tenancies vested in third persons, whether or not appearing of record, for any portion of the said land or improvements erected thereon.

Section 2. The Department of Property and Supplies and the Department of Highways shall each appoint a competent real estate appraiser who shall determine the market value of the land transferred under the provisions of this act. There are hereby appropriated for transfer from the Motor License Fund to the General Fund such sums of money as may be determined by the appraisers to be the value of the land.

Section 3. The deed of transfer or jurisdiction shall be approved by the Department of Military Affairs as well as the Department of Justice and shall be executed by the Secretary of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with the approval of the Governor.

Section 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 3rd day of April, A. D. 1968.

AN ACT

HB 2098

Amending the act of May 11, 1925 (P. L. 561), entitled "An act to provide for the selection of jurors to serve in the several courts, criminal and civil, of counties of the second class, and defining the qualifications of such jurors; providing for the organization of a commission for the selection of jurors in such counties, and prescribing its powers and duties, and authorizing it to investigate as to the qualifications of prospective jurors; imposing the expense of maintaining and operating said commission upon said counties, and requiring the county commissioners to provide suitable quarters, equipment, and supplies; authorizing the employment of the necessary clerks and other employes, and providing for a salary board composed of the commission, the county commissioners, and the controller of said counties, to fix the number and compensation of such employes; requiring county officers and boards to furnish information to said commission concerning taxables resident in said county as to their eligibility for jury service; repealing inconsistent legislation; and prescribing punishment for the violation hereof," authorizing counties of the second class A to come within the provisions of this act.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The title of the act of May 11, 1925 (P. L. 561), entitled "An act to provide for the selection of jurors to serve in the several courts, criminal and civil, of counties of the second class, and defining the qualifications of such jurors; providing for the organization of a commission for the selection of jurors in such counties, and prescribing its powers and duties, and authorizing it to investigate as to the qualifications of prospective jurors; imposing the expense of maintaining and operating said commission upon said counties, and requiring the county commissioners to provide suitable quarters, equipment, and supplies; authorizing the employment of the necessary clerks and other employes, and providing for a salary board composed of the commission, the county commissioners, and the controller of said counties, to fix the number and compensation of such employes; requiring county officers and boards to furnish information to said commission concerning taxables resident in said county as to their eligibility for jury service; repealing inconsistent legislation; and prescribing punishment for the violation hereof," is amended to read:

AN ACT

To provide for the selection of jurors to serve in the several courts, criminal and civil, of counties of the second and second A class, and defining the qualifications of such jurors; providing for the organization of a commission for the selection of jurors in such counties, and prescribing its powers and duties, and authorizing it to investigate as to the qualifications of prospective jurors; imposing the expense of maintaining and operating said commission upon said counties, and requiring the county commissioners to provide suitable quarters, equipment, and supplies; authorizing the employment of the necessary clerks and other employes, and providing for a salary board composed of the commission, the county commissioners, and the controller of said counties, to fix the number and compensation of such employes; requiring county officers and boards to furnish information to said commission concerning taxables resident in said county as to their eligibility for jury service; repealing inconsistent legislation; and prescribing punishment for the violation hereof.

Section 2. Section 1 of the act, amended June 12, 1931 (P. L. 538), is amended to read:

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That for an improved and impartial selection of persons to serve as jurors in the several courts, civil and criminal, of counties of the second class, and those counties of the second class A who elect to come within the provisions of this act, there is hereby created a commission to be known as the "Commission for the Selection of Jurors," hereinafter called "commission." Said commission shall consist of three members. One of said members shall be the president judge of the court of common pleas of the respective county. In the event the president judge is unable by reason of illness or other cause to temporarily perform the duties imposed on him under the provisions of this act, he may temporarily appoint another judge of said court to perform his duties. The other two members of said commission shall be chosen by the qualified electors of said county at the municipal elections at which other county officers are chosen: Provided, however, That in no event shall both of said elective members of the commission be members of the same political party, but the majority political party in said county shall elect one of said elective commissioners, and the other shall be the candidate for such office receiving the highest number of votes of the next ranking or minority political party; the elective members of the commission to be chosen for a term of four years. Any jury commissioner shall be eligible for reelection for any number of terms. In the event that two of the members of the commission are unable by reason of illness or other cause to temporarily perform the duties imposed upon them in the selection of taxables to serve as jurors or in the drawing from the jury wheel, the remaining member, if he the president judge or judge appointed to act in the place of the president judge, may act alone.

Section 3. This act shall take effect June 30, 1968.

APPROVED—The 3rd day of April, A. D. 1968.
