AN ACT

HB 551

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," excluding the sale of antiques from prohibitions against Sunday sales.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 699.10, act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," amended July 19, 1967 (Act No. 51), is amended to read:

Section 699.10. Selling Certain Personal Property on Sunday.—Whoever engages on Sunday in the business of selling, or sells or offers for sale, on such day, at retail, clothing and wearing apparel, clothing accessories, furniture, housewares, home, business or office furnishings, household, business or office appliances, hardware, tools, paints, building and lumber supply materials, jewelry, silverware, watches, clocks, luggage, musical instruments and recordings, or toys, excluding novelties, [and] souvenirs and antiques, shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding for the first offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), and for the second or any subsequent offense committed within one year after conviction for the first offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) or undergo imprisonment not exceeding thirty days in default thereof. No individual who by reason of his religious conviction observes a day other than Sunday as his day of rest and actually refrains from labor or secular business on that day shall be prohibited from selling the above enumerated
