No. 261

AN ACT

HB 671

To provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas in the tenth judicial district.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. In addition to the judges provided for in the act of January 8, 1952 (P. L. 1844), entitled "An act to designate the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth, as required by the Constitution, and to provide for the election and commissioning of judges learned in the law for the said districts," an additional law judge is hereby authorized and provided for the court of common pleas of the tenth judicial district, who shall possess the same qualifications which are required by the Constitution and laws for the president judge of the court of common pleas of the district and who shall hold his office for a like term and by the same tenure and shall have the same power, authority and jurisdiction and shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions and penalties and shall receive the same compensation provided for by law for judges learned in the law as if the same office had been established in the time of and subject to the provisions of the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959), entitled, as amended, "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the County Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, certain state officers, and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly, and repealing certain inconsistent acts."

Section 2. At the municipal election in November, 1969, the qualified electors of the tenth judicial district shall elect, in the same manner prescribed by law for the election of the president judge of the court of common pleas of the district, a competent person learned in the law to serve as additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the tenth judicial district from the first Monday in January, 1970, for a term of ten years. Vacancies in the office hereby created whether caused by death, resignation, expiration of term or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as is required by law in case of a similar vacancy in the office of president judge of the court.

Section 3. The Governor may appoint a competent person, learned in the law, as additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the tenth judicial district to serve until the first Monday of January, 1970.

Section 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT

HB 687

Amending the act of December 17, 1959 (P. L. 1913), entitled "An act prohibiting discrimination in rate of pay because of sex; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry; and prescribing penalties," changing, deleting and adding definitions, further regulating wage rates and extending the time for bringing certain actions.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Sections 2, 3 and 5, act of December 17, 1959 (P. L. 1913), known as the "Equal Pay Law," are amended to read:

Section 2. Definitions.—(a) The term "employee," as used in this act, shall mean any person employed for hire in any lawful business, industry, trade or profession, or in any other lawful enterprise in which individuals are gainfully employed; including individuals employed by the Commonwealth or any of its political subdivisions, including public bodies: Provided, however, That the term "employee" as used in this act shall not apply to any person or persons who is or are subject to section 6 of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act (Act of June 25, 1938, as amended).

(b) "Employer" includes any person acting, directly or indirectly, in the interest of any employer in [relations with] relation to an employe.
