

Section 304.5. Damages.—Nothing contained in the aforesaid sections 304.1, 304.2, 304.3 or 304.4 shall be considered as enlarging or changing the formulas employed in determining just compensation under the provisions of the “Eminent Domain Code.” The damages herein provided are in lieu of the damages provided for in sections 608, 609 and 610 of the “Eminent Domain Code.”

Section 304.6. Administration of Relocation Assistance Program.—The Secretary of Highways may make relocation payments or provide relocation assistance or otherwise carry out the functions required under this act by utilizing the facilities, personnel, and services or any other Federal, State or local governmental agency having an established organization for conducting relocation assistance programs.

Section 304.7. Supervision by Secretary of Highways; Rules and Regulations.—The secretary shall have the power and it shall be his duty to exercise general supervision over the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act and he shall adopt rules and regulations to implement them.

Section 2. The provisions and benefits of this act shall take effect immediately upon approval and shall apply to all amicable acquisitions and condemnations effected thereafter and shall also apply to all amicable acquisitions effected after August 23, 1968, and all condemnations filed after August 23, 1968, the effective date of the Federal-aid Highway Act of 1968 (Chapter 5, Title 23 U. S. C.), which this act implements.
