

No. 161

AN ACT

HB 1839

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P.L.872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," prohibiting possession of burglary tools used for breaking into motor vehicles or into aircraft.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 904, act of June 24, 1939 (P.L.872), known as "The Penal Code," is amended to read:

Section 904. Possession of Burglary Tools.—Whoever has in his possession any tool, false-key, lockpick, bit, nippers, fuse, force-screw, punch, drill, jimmy, or any material, implement, instrument or other mechanical device, designed or commonly used for breaking into any vault, safe, railroad car, boat, vessel, motor vehicle, aircraft, warehouse, store, shop, office, dwelling house, or door, shutter or window of a building of any kind, with the intent to use such tools or instruments for any of the felonious purposes aforesaid, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1000), or undergo imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement, for a period of not more than three (3) years, or both.

APPROVED—The 30th day of June, A. D. 1972.
