

No. 1991-43

AN ACT

SB 1369

Reestablishing the Municipal Pension Advisory Committee.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. This act, with respect to the Municipal Pension Advisory Committee established by the act of July 9, 1981 (P.L.208, No.66), known as the Public Employee Retirement Study Commission Act, constitutes the legislation required to reestablish an agency pursuant to the act of December 22, 1981 (P.L.508, No.142), known as the Sunset Act.

Section 2. The Municipal Pension Advisory Committee shall continue, together with its statutory functions and duties, until December 31, 2001, when it shall go out of existence unless reestablished or continued by the General Assembly. Evaluation and review, termination, reestablishment and continuation of the agency beyond December 31, 2001, and every tenth year thereafter shall be conducted pursuant to the act of December 22, 1981 (P.L.508, No.142), known as the Sunset Act.

Section 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 20th day of December, A. D. 1991.
