

No. 1992-21

AN ACT

HB 222

Excluding the sale of recyclable material from political subdivision personal property sale restrictions relating to advertising and bidding.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this act shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

“Political subdivision.” Any county, city, borough, incorporated town, township, school district or home rule municipality.

Section 2. Exclusion.

(a) General rule.—Except as provided in subsection (b), a political subdivision shall not be subject to requirements of advertising and bidding otherwise imposed by law for the sale of personal property owned by the political subdivision when selling recyclable material or material separated, collected, recovered or created by a recycling program authorized by the political subdivision.

(b) Exception.—The exclusion set forth in subsection (a) shall not apply to a contract entered into between a political subdivision and a private entity for the purpose of carrying out a recycling program on behalf of the political subdivision.

Section 3. Effective date.

This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 9th day of April, A. D. 1992.
