This transfer is approved in the amount of $85,000,000.

While I am signing this General Appropriation bill, much has changed since I proposed my budget in February. For that reason, I am taking the following actions to protect the taxpayers of Pennsylvania while ensuring important government services continue uninterrupted.

To align spending with the certified revenue estimate, I am item vetoing approximately $72.4 million in spending, most of which is in the legislative lines of the bill. This action will prevent new legislative spending and maintain current funding levels in the General Assembly.

I have taken these measured steps to ensure that proposed spending is in line with the estimated available revenue.

TOM CORBETT
