CHAPTER DCCCXXIII.

An ACT for incorporating the Scots Presbyterian church in the city of Philadelphia.

Passed 31st March, 1779.—Private Act.—Recorded in Law Book vol. I. page 252.

CHAPTER DCCCXXVI.

An ACT declaring replevins, attachments, judgments and executions, in certain cases, to be erroneous and void.

[See chap. 139, ante, pa. 44, and the notes there-to subjoined.]

WHEREAS divers writs of replevin have of late been granted and issued for goods and chattels taken in execution, and for fines and penalties legally incurred and due to this commonwealth, to the delay of public justice, and to the great vexation of the officers concerned in taking and levying the same:

Replevins issued for goods seized by any officer to be quashed

II. Be it enacted and declared, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That all writs of replevin granted or issued for any owner or owners of any goods or chattels, levied, seized, or taken in execution, or by distress, or otherwise, by any Sheriff, Naval Officer, Lieutenant or Sub-lieutenant of the city of Philadelphia or of any county, Constable, Collector of the public taxes, or other officer, acting in their several offices under the authority of the state, are irregular, erroneous and void; and that all such writs may and shall, at any time after the service, be quashed (upon motion) by the court to which they are returnable, the said court being ascertained of the truth of the fact, by affidavit, or otherwise.

and treble costs awarded.

III. And be it further enacted, That the court, besides quashing the said writs, may and shall award treble costs to the defendant or defendants in such writs; and also, according to their discretion, order an attachment against any Prothonotary or Clerk, who shall make out or grant any such writ, knowing the same to be for goods or chattels taken in execution, or seized as aforesaid.
