

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, 1790.
That if any person or persons shall mix any staves or headings which shall have been adjudged merchantable, with any cullings or unmerchantable staves or headings, or with any staves or heading which have not been inspected, he or they shall forfeit the whole so mixed, one half to the use of the commonwealth, the other half to the use of the informer.

Penalty for mixing merchantable heading with unmerchantable or uninspected.

SECT. IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid,
That it shall and may be lawful to export staves commonly called and known by the name of Leogan staves, and used for sugar hogsheds, provided they be four feet six inches long, three and an half inches broad, including sap, if it be sound, and half an inch thick, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding, subject nevertheless to the same inspection as other staves.

Leogan staves, of certain dimensions, may be exported.

SECT. V. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the officer appointed for inspecting and culling staves shall have four shillings and two-pence for every thousand of pipe staves and hogsheds, and three shillings and four-pence for every thousand of all other kind of staves and heading. Provided always, That nothing in this act contained shall debar any cooper from purchasing a sufficient quantity of staves or heading, uninspected, and unculted, to make up into casks, or to use in the way of his business within this state.

Compensation of the inspector.

Coopers may use uninspected and unculted staves or heading within this state.

SECT. VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid,
That so much of the act of Assembly, entitled "An act to prevent the exportation of bad or unmerchantable staves, heading, boards and timber," and of the act, entitled "An act to amend the act, entitled "An act to prevent the exportation of bad and unmerchantable staves, heading, boards and timber;" as is hereby altered and supplied, shall be, and is hereby declared to be, repealed and made void; and that the residue thereof shall be, and is hereby declared to be in full force and virtue, to all intents and purposes, as if this act had not been made.

Repeal of parts of former laws;

and confirmation of the rest.

SECT. VII. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid,
That any person whatever who shall act as a deputy inspector of staves, heading or lumber, not being lawfully authorized and deputed so to do, shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, the sum of five pounds, to be recovered as debts of like value may be recovered by the laws of this commonwealth, one half to the use of the person suing, the other half to the use of the poor of the city and county of Philadelphia.

Penalty on persons acting as deputy inspectors, without authority.

Passed 5th April, 1790.—Recorded in Law Book No. IV. page 119.

CHAPTER MDIV.

An ACT for appointing an additional trustee for the county of Mifflin.

SECT. I. WHEREAS, by the ninth section of an act of this commonwealth, entitled "An act for erecting certain parts of Cumberland and Northumberland counties into a separate county," John Oliver, William Brown, David Beal, John Stewart, David Bowel and Andrew Gregg, of said county, were appointed trustees for the county aforesaid, with full authority for them, or a majority of them, to purchase, or take and receive by grant, bargain or otherwise, any quantity or quantities of land, not exceeding one hundred and fifty acres of land, on the north side of Juniata river, and within one mile from the mouth of Kishacoquillis creek, for the use, trust and benefit of said county, and to lay out the same into regular town-lots, and to dispose of so many of them, as they or any four of them, may think best for the advantage of said county; and they or any four of them, are thereby authorized to sell and convey so many of them as they may think proper, and with the monies so arising from the sale of said lots, and with other monies to be duly assessed, levied and collected, within the said county of Mifflin, for that purpose, which is hereby declared it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners thereof to do, or cause to be done, to build and erect a court-house and prison, suitable and convenient for the public, on the public and such other square as shall be reserved for that purpose; and the said trustees shall, from time to time, render true and faithful accounts of the expenditures of the same, not only to the commissioners, but to the grand jury, for inspection, adjustment and settlement of the accounts of said county: And whereas David Bowel, one of the said trustees, does not reside within the limits of the said county of Mifflin, and as the act erecting Mifflin county requires four trustees to concur in every transaction done under and in virtue of their appointment:

SECT. II. Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Representatives of the Freemen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That Dr. James Armstrong is hereby appointed a trustee in and for the county of Mifflin, and is hereby invested with like powers and authorities, in every matter and thing whatsoever, that of right

Dr. J. Armstrong appointed an additional trustee for
