

respectively, as have not heretofore settled their public accounts.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the auditors to settle and adjust the account of all monies received by the Sheriffs or Coroners, agreeably to an act directing the mode of selecting and returning jurors; and such auditors shall have like powers and authority in settling such accounts, as they have in other cases; and on filing a copy of such settlement in the Prothonotary's office, it shall be under the same laws, rules and regulations, and have the same operation and effect as the report of auditors against county treasurers.

§ 3: All persons who now are, or have been Sheriffs, or county commissioners, and all persons who have heretofore been county treasurers, or the executors or administrators of any such persons as aforesaid, having in their hands any monies, made out of the sales of unseated lands, and remaining in their hands, after the deduction of the taxes as aforesaid, are hereby authorized and required forthwith to pay them over to the county treasurer for the time being who shall hold the same for the same uses and trusts as the said persons respectively did.

CHAPTER MDXXXIII.

An ACT for the better ascertaining of the boundary line between the counties of Huntingdon and Mifflin.

WHEREAS some dissatisfaction hath arisen, respecting the boundary line between the counties of Huntingdon and Mifflin, on the south side of the river Juniata, which was run in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the line described in the act, entitled "An act for erecting a part of the county of Cumberland, into a separate county,"* passed the ninth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one,† shall be run by James Cunningham, David Stewart, and John Oliver, esquires, or any two of them, who are hereby authorized and empowered to run the same; which line, in the said act, is described as follows: Beginning where the province line crosses the Tuscarora mountain, and running along the summit of that mountain to the Gap, near the head of the Path-valley; thence with a north line, to the Juniata; and the said line, from the said Gap to the Juniata, being run, shall be and remain the boundary line between the counties of Huntingdon and Mifflin, on the south side of the river Juniata: And until the said line shall be run as aforesaid, the line between the two counties aforesaid shall be and remain the same, as that which divided Bedford county from Cumberland county. And the expenses of running the said line shall be paid by the treasurers of Huntingdon and Mifflin counties, equally, out of the county rates and levies of each county respectively. (n)

Passed 1st April, 1791.—Recorded in Law Book No. IV. page 153.

(n) Other commissioners were directed to be appointed by the governor, by an act passed 30th of Sept'r, 1791. (chap. 1585.) And by an act passed 29th of March, 1792, (chap. 1606,) it is enacted, that a straight line, beginning in the middle of the water Gap in the Tuscarora mountain, and from thence to the river Juniata, in such direction as to include Joseph Galloway's farm within Hunting-dun county, at the mouth of Galloway's run, shall be the boundary line between Huntingdon and Mifflin counties, on the south side of Juniata, and the governor was directed to appoint one commissioner to run said line.
