

1793. 10. The property of the bridge vested in the corporation. Tolls to be taken, and amount regulated. The bridge shall not injure the navigation of the river. 11. Of the toll for carriages drawn by oxen. 12. Penalty on demanding greater or other tolls. Proceedings thereupon before a Justice, and appeal from the decision of the Justice. Limitation of suits. 13. Accounts of tolls to be kept. Of dividends. 14. Accounts to be laid before the General Assembly; and how tolls may be increased or reduced.

Passed 11th April, 1793.—Recorded in Law Book No. V. page 111.

CHAPTER MDCXCII.

An ACT to annex the township of Letterkenny, in the county of Franklin, to the fifth election district, and to change the place of holding the annual elections of said district, and to unite part of Southampton township to the first district.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the township of Letterkenny, in the county of Franklin, shall be annexed to that part of the fifth election district, consisting of Lurgan township, and that part of Southampton, laying west of the great road leading from Shippensburg to James Findley's, called Loudon Road; and the freemen of said fifth district shall meet, to hold their annual elections at the house now occupied by Andrew Ralston, in the town of Strasburg, in the township of Letterkenny; and that part of the township of Southampton laying east of said road shall be annexed to the first election district; and the freemen thereof shall meet, to hold their annual elections at the court-house in Chambersburgh, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Alterations
in the fifth and first election districts
of Franklin county.

Passed 4th September, 1793.—Recorded in Law Book No. V. page 175.