
 CHAPTER 66.

[66] THE LAW AGAINST HARBOURING SERVANTS.

Be It Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Inhabitant within this Province or territories thereof, Shall at any time hereafter Conceal, entertain or harbour any Servant belonging to this Province or elsewhere, for the Space of twenty four hours, & not make the Same known to one of the Justices of the Peace of that County within the time aforesaid, Every Such person shall for that his offence be Liable to pay unto the Owner of such Servant five shillings for every day that such servant shall be Concealed, entertained or harboured as aforesaid.

H.S.P., Logan Papers, Law Book, 1693-1699/1700. Chapter 137, 1683. See Vol. II St.L. 54, ch. XLIX.

 CHAPTER 67.

[67] THE LAW AGAINST TRUCKING WITH SERVANTS.

Be It Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no person shall at any time hereafter within this province or Territories thereof, give, trust, Sell or Dispose of any of his or her Master, Mistris or dame's goods, to any person without the Consent of the Said Master, Mistris or dame; And if any person Shall at any time hereafter take, Receive or possess goods of any kind whatsoever from any servant as aforesaid, Such person Shall for such offence be Liable to pay to the owner of such Servant, double the value thereof, and return the Said goods to the owner again, or the value thereof.

H.S.P., Logan Papers, Law Book, 1693-1699/1700. Chapter 138, 1683. See Vol. II St.L. 54, ch. XLIX.