CHAPTER CCCXCIII.

AN ACT FOR ERECTING THE NORTHWEST PART OF BUCKS INTO A SEPARATE COUNTY.

Whereas a great number of the inhabitants of the upper parts of the county of Bucks by their petition have humbly represented to the governor and assembly of this province the great hardships they lay under by being so remote from the present seat of judicature and the public offices, that the necessary means to be used for obtaining justice is attended with so much difficulty and expense that many forego their right rather than attempt the recovery of it under such circumstances, while others, sensible of these difficulties, commit great villainies with impunity.

For remedying whereof and for relief of the inhabitants:

[Section I.] Be it enacted by the Honorable James Hamilton, Esquire, Lieutenant-Governor under the Honorable Thomas Penn and Richard Penn, Esquires, true and absolute Proprietaries of the Province of Pennsylvania and of the counties of Newcastle, Kent and Sussex upon Delaware, by and with the [advice and] consent of the representatives of the freemen of the said Province in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That all and singular the lands lying within the province of Pennsylvania aforesaid be erected into a county, and the same is hereby erected into a county, named and henceforth to be called Northampton; to be divided from the county of Bucks by the upper or northwestward line of Durham Tract, to the upper corner thereof; then by a straight line to be run southwestwardly to the line dividing the townships of Upper and Lower Milford; then along the said line to the line dividing Philadelphia and Bucks counties; and then by that line to the extremity of the said province.

[Section II.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the inhabitants of the said county shall at all times hereafter have and enjoy all and singular the jurisdictions, powers, rights, liberties and privileges whatsoever which the inhabitants of any other county within the said province do, may or ought to enjoy by any charter of privileges or the laws of this province or by any other ways or means whatsoever, excepting only in the number of representatives to serve in the general assembly of this province; in which case it is

[Section III.] Provided, and further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That until it shall be otherwise ordered by the governor and assembly of this province, the freemen and inhabitants of the said county qualified by the laws of this province to elect shall annually meet at or near the place where the courthouse is intended to be built for the said county at the same time the inhabitants of the other counties of this province shall meet for like purposes, and there proceed to choose inspectors and to elect one representative or delegate to serve them in assembly, in the same manner as by the charter and laws of this province is directed in respect to other counties, which said representative when so chosen shall be a member of the general assembly of the province of Pennsylvania and sit and act as such as fully and freely as any of the representatives for the other counties within this province do, may, can or ought to do.

[Section IV.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all taxes already laid within the bounds of the said county of Northampton by virtue of any act of general assembly of this province which are not already paid shall be collected by the respective collectors within the bounds aforesaid and paid into the hands of the treasurer of Bucks county; and that all persons concerned in the levying, receiving and paying the said taxes shall have the same power and authority and be under the same penalties and restrictions for collecting and paying the same, as by the said acts by which the said taxes were assessed are expressed and directed, until the whole be collected and paid as aforesaid.

[Section V.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the justices of the supreme court of this province shall have like powers, jurisdictions and authorities within the said county of Northampton as by law they are vested with and entitled unto in the other counties within the province aforesaid, and are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to deliver the gaols of the said county of capital or other offenders in like manner as they are authorized to do in other the counties aforesaid.

[Section VI.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That there shall be a competent number of justices nominated and authorized by the governor for the time being by commissions under the broad seal of the province, which said justices or any three of them shall and may hold courts of general quarter-sessions of the peace and gaol delivery and county courts for holding of pleas, and shall have all and singular the powers, rights, jurisdictions and authorities, to all intents and purposes, as other the justices of courts of general quarter-sessions and justices of the county courts for holding of pleas in the other counties aforesaid may, can or ought to have in their respective counties; which said courts shall from and after the publication of this act sit and be held for the said county of Northampton on the third day of the week, commonly called Tuesday, next ensuing Bucks county court, in every of the months called March, June, September and December in every year, at Easton, on Lehiatan, in the forks of the river Delaware, until a courthouse shall be built; and when the same is built and erected in the county aforesaid the said several courts shall then be holden and kept at the said courthouse on the days before mentioned. And the election of a representative to serve in general assembly, assessors and all other officers of the said county who are or shall be appointed to be annually elected shall be made and elected at or near the said courthouse at the same time and in the same manner as by the charter of privileges and laws of the province aforesaid is directed to be done in other counties within this province. And it shall be lawful for the freemen of the said county for the first year to choose three commissioners for raising county rates and levies for the said county.

[Section VII.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for Thomas Craig, Hugh Wilson, John Jones, Thomas Armstrong and James Martin or any three of them to purchase and take assurance to them and their heirs of a piece of land situate in some convenient place in the said town in trust and for the use of the inhabitants of the said county, and thereon to erect and build a courthouse and prison sufficient to accommodate the public service of the said county and for the ease and conveniency of the inhabitants.

[Section VIII.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for the defraying the charges of purchasing the land, building and erecting the courthouse and prison aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the commissioners and assessors of the said county or a majority of them to assess and levy, and they are hereby required to assess and levy, so much money as the said trustees or any three of them shall judge necessary for purchasing the land and finishing the said courthouse and prison. Provided always, the sum of money so to be raised does not exceed three hundred pounds current money of this province.

[Section IX.] Provided also, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no action or suit now commenced or depending in the county of Bucks against any person living within the bounds of the said county of Northampton or elsewhere shall be stayed or discontinued by this act or by anything herein contained, but that the same actions already commenced or depending may be prosecuted and judgment thereupon rendered as if this act had not been made; and that it shall and may be lawful for the justices of Bucks county to issue any judicial process, to be directed to the sheriff of Bucks county for carrying on and obtaining the effect of their suits, which sheriff shall be and is hereby obliged to yield obedience in executing the said writs and make due return thereof before the justices of the said court of the said county of Bucks as if the parties were living and residing within the same.

[Section X.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That Daniel Craige, of the said county of Northampton, be and hereby is appointed collector of the excise of the said county, who is hereby authorized and empowered, by himself or his sufficient deputy, duly constituted and for whom he shall be accountable, to demand, collect, receive and recover the excise appointed to be paid by any act or acts of assembly of this province, and also the arrearages thereof, of and from all and every person and persons within the said county retailing or vending any of the liquors by the said acts liable to pay the same; and also to recover and receive all and every the duties, fines and forfeitures laid or imposed, or that shall happen to arise and become due, for anything done contrary to the intent of the said acts.

[Section XI.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said collector of excise for the county of Northampton aforesaid, the better to enable himself to recover the arrearages of excise now due or which shall become due before the publication of this act, shall apply to the collector of the excise for the county of Bucks for a list, which he is hereby enjoined and required to deliver, containing the names of each and every person in arrear for excise within the said county of Northampton and how much from each of them.

[Section XII.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the collector of the county of Northampton aforesaid before he enters on the execution of his said office is hereby required to give bond with two sufficient sureties to the treasurer of this province for the time being in the sum of two hundred pounds, lawful money of the province aforesaid, for the faithful discharge of his duty and paying all such sums of money as he shall from time to time receive by virtue of this act. And further, the collector of the said county of Northampton shall in all things govern himself and be subject to the same regulations, restrictions, fines and forfeitures, and shall observe like rules, orders and directions, as the collectors of other the counties aforesaid by the laws of this province are liable to. And the said collector for the discharge of the duty of the said office within the said county of Northampton shall have and receive like fees, perquisites and rewards for his services enjoined by this act as other the collectors aforesaid (Philadelphia excepted) by the acts aforesaid are entitled unto for the services enjoined them by the acts aforesaid.

[Section XIII.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That until a sheriff and coroner shall be chosen in the county of Northampton in pursuance of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the sheriff and coroner of Bucks to officiate and act in the discharge of their respective duties as fully and amply as they might and ought to have done if this act had not been made, one of whom or his deputy shall attend and discharge the duty of his office according to the laws of this province at he next election at Bucks, and the other of them or his deputy shall attend and discharge the duty of his office in like manner at the first election next to be held in the county of Northampton aforesaid, in pursuance of the directions of this act.

And to the end the boundaries of the said county of Northampton may be the better ascertained and known,

[Section XIV.] Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for John Chapman,

John Watson, Junior, and Samuel Foulke or to and for a majority of them, and they are hereby required and firmly enjoined, within the space of six months next after the publication of this act to assemble themselves together and run, mark out and distinguish the boundary line between the said counties of Bucks and Northampton; and the charges to arise for the doing thereof shall be defrayed by the said county of Northampton, and to that end levied and raised by the inhabitants thereof in such manner as other public money for the use of the said county by law ought to be raised and levied.

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE ASSIZE OF BREAD.

Whereas by an act of the general assembly of this province passed in the twelfth year of the reign of King William the Third, entitled "An act for the assize of bread,"<sup>1</sup> it is provided that the several sorts of bread therein mentioned shall be made according to a table calculated by Troy weight, which being found inconvenient and it being necessary to make some alterations in the weight of the several sorts of bread and some further provisions for the better regulation of bakers; therefore:

[Section I.] Be it enacted by the Honorable James Hamilton,
