practices in the packing of beef and pork for exportation and to regulate the exportation of flaxseed, butter and biscuit in kegs,'” it is enacted that salted beef and pork which shall have been brought or imported from any place or places without the bounds and limits of this commonwealth and which shall have been branded in the manner therein described, shall be excepted from the regulations of the said act:

And whereas the said exception from its extent may be injurious to the reputation of the salted provisions of this state:

[Section I.] (Section II, P. L.) Be it therefore enacted and it is hereby enacted by the Representatives of the Freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and by the authority of the same, That the exception contained in the act aforesaid shall not be deemed to extend to any salted beef or pork unless the same shall be brought into this commonwealth by water from some place without and beyond the Capes of Delaware.

And in order that such beef and pork as shall be exported from this commonwealth may be the better known in foreign parts and estimated according to the qualities thereof:

[Section II.] (Section III, P. L.) Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all such tierces, barrels and half barrels as are in and by the said recited act directed and required to be branded with the arms of Pennsylvania shall instead thereof be branded with the word “Philadelphia” at full length and in a plain and legible manner.
