

counties make a corner, near the Horseshoe road on the Welch mountain, to such point on the Octorara creek as in the opinion of the said commissioners may be necessary, which lines, when so run and fixed by the commissioners as aforesaid, or any two of them, shall be and remain the lines dividing the counties of Lancaster and Chester respectively.

[Section II.] (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where any survey or surveys have been made previous to the passing of this act, within the counties aforesaid, by any deputy surveyor, and it shall be found after the running of the several lines as directed by this act, that the same surveys are not within the proper district of such deputy surveyor, the return of such survey or surveys by the deputy or deputies who may have made the same, under circumstances of uncertainty, shall be as good and available in law, as if the same had been executed and returned by the proper deputy of the district, any law to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall in any degree prejudice or affect the right of private property.

[Section III.] (Section III, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the expenses attending the execution of the duties enjoined upon the commissioners, to be appointed by the first section of this act, as also the expenses which shall be incurred in running the lines between said counties, shall be paid out of the treasuries of the counties of Lancaster and Chester respectively, in equal proportion.

Passed February 10, 1801.
