

lands on their old proprietary warrants or locations, that the board of property shall have power to direct the receiver general, on settlement of their said accounts on the said proprietary warrants or locations, to carry to their credit the amount of purchase-money and interest paid by them, or those under whom they claim on their said new warrants.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this act and the benefit and advantages offered by the same, shall be and remain in force for three years, and from thence to the end of the next session of the legislature.

Approved April 2, 1804. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 13.

CHAPTER MMD.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF DAVID JACKSON.

Whereas it is represented to this legislature that David Jackson, during the revolutionary war, was called out on a tour of duty, in the Chester county militia, in Captain David Hay's company, in a regiment commanded by colonel Evan Evans, and that in the cannonade at Trenton, on the second day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, he had his left hand shot off by a cannon ball; that by an order of the orphan's court in Chester county, he was allowed a pension of four dollars a month, and that afterwards (to wit on the first day of November one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven) he was allowed an additional dollar per month; that since the first of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, his pension has been paid by the United States, and has for more than nine years past been reduced to four dollars per month: And whereas the said David Jackson is now aged and infirm, and unable to support himself by labor, and hath prayed the legislature to grant him relief, by allowing him the addition to his pension, as established in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That David Jackson, now of the county of Lancaster, be and he is hereby allowed from this commonwealth, twelve dollars a year, in addition to his pension of forty-eight dollars per annum, which he now receives from the United States, from the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, for and during his natural life, to be paid to him or his lawful attorney, in the manner following, to wit: One hundred and eight dollars for the first nine years immediately after the passing of this act, and afterwards in half yearly payments, from the said first day of January one thousand eight hundred and four, on warrants to be drawn by the governor out of any of the unappropriated monies in the treasury of this commonwealth.

Approved April 2, 1804. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 14.

CHAPTER MMDI.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF NICHOLAS REEM.

Whereas it appears that Nicholas Reem (alias Nicholas Rheam) of Northumberland county, so early as the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, did enlist in the late revolutionary army for three years, or during the war, and continued therein as sergeant until some time in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, when he was discharged by reason of wounds received in the service, which disabled him from longer serving his country in a military capacity: And whereas the said Nicholas, presuming on the justice of his claim, has petitioned the legislature to grant him a share of donation land; and inasmuch as it appears both equitable and just, that the soldier, who, through the adverse fate of war was prevented from serving to the end thereof by wounds, honorably received, is equally entitled to the rewards