AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF JAMES OGLIVIA.

Whereas it has been represented to the legislature that James Oglivia, of the county of Montgomery, at the commencement of the revolutionary war, served several tours of duty in the militia; that on the fifth of October, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, he enlisted in Captain Christie's company of the fifth Pennsylvania regiment commanded by Colonel Francis Johnston, and continued therein until the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty; he was then put into the second battalion of Pennsylvania troops commanded by Colonel Richard Butler; that the term of his enlistment expired on the fifth of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, but did not ask his discharge until, after he saw the capture of Cornwallis at Yorktown, in Virginia; that he then on the fifth of November, received his discharge; that he has now become infirm by age and by accident, and destitute of support: Therefore for the relief of a very meritorious soldier,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the sum of sixty dollars be, and the same is hereby granted to James Oglivia, to be paid to him or his lawful attorney immediately after the passing of this act, on a warrant drawn by the governor on the state treasurer; and that an annuity of fifty dollars be granted for the use of James Oglivia, to be paid to Nathaniel B. Boileau,
