

CHAPTER MMDCCCLV.

AN ACT FOR RAISING BY WAY OF LOTTERY THE SUM OF SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR DEFRAYING THE EXPENSE OF MAKING AN AQUEDUCT TO CONDUCT WATER INTO THE TOWN OF MEADVILLE, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That William Poyntell, Matthew Carey and John Inskeep of the city of Philadelphia, and Roger Alden of the town of Meadville, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to raise by way of lottery, a sum of money not exceeding six thousand dollars, for the purposes of bringing water into the town of Meadville by pipes; of improving the streets and highways within the same; of aiding the funds of the seminary of learning, and of the society for the encouraging manufactures and other useful arts within the same.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners before they proceed to sell any tickets in the said lottery, shall lay such scheme thereof before the governor, as shall meet his approbation, and enter into bonds to him for the due and faithful performance of their duty in selling the tickets, drawing the lottery and paying the prizes; and each of them before entering on the duties of his appointment, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, diligently and faithfully to perform the duties hereby intrusted to him; and two of the said commissioners at least shall attend each day's drawing of the aforesaid lottery, in the city of Philadelphia; and when the whole is completed, shall cause an accurate list of the fortunate numbers to be published in two of the newspapers printed in the city of Philadelphia, and the Crawford Weekly Messenger.

Section III. (Section III, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners be and they are hereby authorized to settle and adjust all accounts which may be exhibited by any person or persons legally employed in carrying this act into effect; and that all expenses necessarily attending the same, shall be paid by the aforesaid commissioners out of the proceeds of the lottery.

Section IV. (Section IV, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That John Brooks, Henry Hurst, and Thomas R. Kennedy, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to receive and lay out the sums of money raised and appropriated by this act, for the purpose of bringing water into the town of Meadville by pipes, and of improving the streets and highways within the same, and when the money is delivered to them, they shall enter into bonds to the treasurer of the county of Crawford for the faithful performance of their duty; and the said commissioners shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for their time and expenses.

Section V. (Section V, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That one-half of the net proceeds of the aforesaid lottery hereby is and shall be appropriated and applied for the purpose of bringing water into the town of Meadville by pipes; one-sixth part to improving the streets and highways within the same; one-sixth part to the funds of the seminary of learning within the same; and the remaining one-sixth part to the Meadville society for encouraging manufactures and the useful arts.

Section VI. (Section VI, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed for the management of the lottery when the same is drawn and published, to make out a true statement of the proceeds after the expenses are paid; and the amount shall be paid over to the treasurer of the county of Crawford for the time being, who shall give his bond with conditions to whom or to what officers the same is to be paid; and it shall be his duty to pay the same in the proportions as specified and expressed in this act to the commissioners hereby appointed in the fourth section of this act, to the treasurer of the seminary of learning at Meadville, and to the treasurer of the Meadville society for encouraging manufactures and the useful arts, and their respective receipts shall be evidence of a full and complete discharge of the duty hereby assigned to the said treasurer.

Section VII. (Section VII, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all prizes not demanded within twelve months next after the publication aforesaid, shall be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the aforesaid seminary of learning.

Section VIII. (Section VIII, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the court of quarter session of the peace, be, and the same is hereby authorized and required whenever it shall be necessary, to appoint two judicious citizens, who with the county commissioners, shall be auditors to adjust and settle the accounts of the commissioners mentioned in the fourth section of this act; and the said auditors shall allow the said commissioners respectively such compensation for their services necessarily employed under this act, as the said auditors shall think just and reasonable; and it shall be the duty of the said auditors to report to the court of quarter sessions of the peace, whether the said commissioners have discharged the duties of their trust according to the true intent and meaning of this act, which report if approved of, the court shall direct that the said commissioners be discharged from any further responsibility.

Approved April 10, 1807. Recorded in L. B. No. 11, p. 86.
