

CHAPTER MMCMXCII.

AN ACT TO AFFORD IMMEDIATE RELIEF TO ALBRIGHT WEAVER, A SOLDIER, DURING THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR, AND TO GRANT HIM AN ANNUITY.

Whereas it appears to the legislature that Albright Weaver, a soldier in the Pennsylvania line, received a wound in the right hand at the battle of Brunswick, which has rendered him unable to maintain himself by labor: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the governor is authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favor of John Dorsey of the city of Philadelphia, for the sum of forty dollars, which shall be paid out of any unappropriated monies in the treasury, and an annuity of forty dollars, be granted for the use of Albright Weaver, to be paid to said John Dorsey, or his executor or executors, administrator or administrators, or his or their lawful attorney to commence from the first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eight, and to be paid yearly to the said John Dorsey, or to his executor or executors, administrator or administrators, or to his or their lawful attorney, on warrants to be drawn by the governor on the state treasury, which money in advance, and the annuity shall be expended by the said John Dorsey, his executor or executors, administrator or administrators, or his or their lawful attorney, in providing clothing, diet and lodging for the said Albright Weaver; and it shall be the duty of the said John Dorsey, his executor or executors, administrator or administrators, or his or their lawful attorney, to make an annual return to the orphans' court of the county of Philadelphia, on oath or affirmation, how and in what manner he or they have executed the trust in him or them confided by this act.
