CHAPTER MMCMXCVIII.

AN ACT TO DISSOLVE THE MARRIAGE OF JACOB MAYER AND CATHARINE, HIS WIFE.

Whereas it appears to the legislature that immediately after the intermarriage of Jacob Mayer, of Leacock township, Lancaster county, and Catharine his wife, and before consummation, an unaccountable antipathy and dislike on her part took place to her said husband, which led her to separate from him, and that although all reasonable pains have been taken by him and her father, to overcome her aversion and to reconcile her to her said husband, there remains no prospect of reconciliation, which extraordinary and unhappy situation, can be redressed by the legislature only: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the marriage of the said Jacob Mayer and Catharine his wife, be, and the same is hereby annulled to all intents and purposes whatsoever, and they are hereby set free and totally discharged from the said matrimonial contract and from all duties and obligations arising therefrom as fully and absolutely as if they had never been joined in matrimony.

Approved March 28, 1808. Recorded in L. B. No. 11, p. 252.

CHAPTER MMCMXCIX.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT, ENTITLED "AN ACT TO REGULATE ARBITRATIONS AND PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS OF JUSTICE."

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in case of the non-attendance of a competent number of judges at the day appointed for holding a court of oyer and terminer in the city of Philadelphia, or in any county of this commonwealth, or in case of any subsequent interruption of the business of such court by the sickness of any judge or judges or other cause, any one judge of the said court shall have power to adjourn and continue the said court from day to day as may be expedient, and any associate judge of the court of common pleas in any county under the like circumstances, shall have power to adjourn and continue the courts of common pleas and quarter sessions.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That awards of referees in any
