CHAPTER MMMCXXX.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO AN ACT, ENTITLED "AN ACT FOR THE REGULATION OF THE MILITIA OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA." (4).

Whereas great inconvenience and hardship arises out of the present law regulating the militia of this commonwealth, to the enrolled militia south of Loyalsock creek, in Lycoming county, composing the second battalion of the first regiment and tenth division aforesaid, now commanded by Major Arthur M'Kisson, inasmuch as a great portion of them have not only to cross the river and several large streams of water, but have to travel from twenty to thirty miles, to Williamsport, their usual place of regimental meeting: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the battalion aforesaid, shall meet within their battalion bounds on the same days as are prescribed by the act⁽¹⁾ to which this is a supplement.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the collectors of taxes throughout this commonwealth, shall receive five per cent. on all monies by them collected as exempt fines, which shall be allowed to the county treasurers, in the settlement of their accounts with the auditor general.

Section III. (Section III, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the enrolled militia composing the first battalion of the one hundred and thirty-sixth regiment, shall exercise in the following manner, to wit: On the days appointed by law for regimental and battalion trainings, in the months of May and October, the first and fourth companies of said regiment shall meet together, and exercise at some central place, and the fifth and eighth companies shall meet on the following day, at some other place; the places for exercising to be fixed by the field officers of the regiment, and to be subject to the same fines, penalties and regulations, as if they trained by regiments; and it shall be the duty of the proper brigade inspector, before the first day of May next, to give at least ten days notice, and proceed to hold elections for the purpose of electing one major to command said battalion. The brigade inspector shall give notice to the first and fourth companies, that an election is to be held for the purpose of electing a major within the bounds of said companies, and on the following day to hold an election within the bounds of the fifth and eighth companies, and the person having the greatest number of votes in the battalion shall be major of said battalion, whose duty it shall be to attend and train the said battalion as is directed by this act.

Section IV. (Section IV, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the act⁽²⁾ to which this is a supplement as is hereby altered or supplied, be, and the same is hereby repealed.
