thirteen directors for the transaction of business, as from their various and active avocations they are often prevented from giving punctual and necessary attendance, by which means the discount business is exposed to suffer to the inconvenience of the public, and the injury of the institution.

[Section I.] (Section I. P. L.) Be it therefore enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the fifth article of the seventh section of the act to incorporate the subscribers to the Bank of Pennsylvania, as requires the attendance of thirteen directors of the said bank to perform the business of discounting, be, and hereby is, repealed.

[Section II.] (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That seven directors shall constitute a board for the purpose of transacting the discount business of the Bank of Pennsylvania.

Passed February 13, 1794. Recorded L. B. No. 5, p. 346, &c.

CHAPTER MDCCXXXVIII.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF PATRICK ROBERTS AND CHARLES WEST, JUNIOR.

Whereas it has been represented to the legislature by Patrick Roberts, a soldier in the late Pennsylvania line of the army of the United States, that he has lost a certificate, number seventy-seven, for the sum of fifty-six pounds six shillings and four pence, issued to him for the depreciation of his pay. And whereas it has been represented by a petition from Charles West, junior, that he has lost a new loan certificate, number eleven thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, for two hundred and ninety-four pounds five shillings: And whereas it appears by a certificate of the comptroller-general that the said certificate granted to Patrick Roberts hath not been redeemed, and as it
