laying out, opening and improving sundry roads within this commonwealth, and for the purposes therein mentioned;"¹ the sum of seven hundred dollars was appropriated for opening and improving the road from Wilkes-Barre to Wyalusing Creek, and it having been represented to the legislature that the said sum of seven hundred dollars is insufficient for that purpose, and the opening and completing the said road being necessary and of public utility. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That a further sum of six hundred dollars, over and above the said sum of seven hundred dollars, shall be, and the same is hereby, granted and appropriated for the purpose of completing the said road from Wilkesbarre to Wyalusing creek, to be paid out of the fund appropriated for the support of government, on a warrant or warrants of the governor for that purpose drawn on the state treasurer.

Passed April 22, 1794. Recorded L. B. No. 5, p. 316.

CHAPTER MDCCLXV.

A SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A BOARD OF WARDENS FOR THE PORT OF PHILADELPHIA, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES THEREIN MENTIONED."²

In order more effectually to regulate the port of Philadelphia:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the governor shall appoint and commission a person, of good character and competent skill, to be harbor master of the port of Philadelphia; and the said harbor master, having first taken an oath or affirmation, and given bond, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the gover-
