AN ACT TO ERECT THE TOWN OF PITTSBURG, IN THE COUNTY OF ALLEGHENY, INTO A BOROUGH, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES THEREIN MENTIONED.

Whereas the inhabitants of the town of Pittsburg, in the county of Allegheny, have, by their petition, prayed to be incorporated, and that the said town and its vicinity, as hereafter described, should be erected into a borough. And whereas it may contribute to the advantage of the inhabitants of the said town, as also to those who trade and resort there, and be of public utility, that nuisances, encroachments of all sorts, contentions, annoyances, and inconveniences, in the said town and its vicinity, should be prevented. And for the promoting of rule, order and good government in the said town:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said town of Pittsburg shall be, and the same is hereby, erected into a borough, which shall be called the borough of Pittsburg forever, the extent of which said borough of Pittsburg is and shall be comprised in the following boundaries, to wit: Beginning at the point or confluence of the rivers Allegheny and Monongahela, and running up the northeast beach of the said river Monongahela, south fifty-seven degrees east, thirty-nine perches, to Short Street; thence south sixty-four degrees east,
