CHAPTER MDCCCLIV.

AN ACT SUPPLEMENTARY TO THE SEVERAL ACTS ESTABLISHING AN HEALTH OFFICE.

Whereas, in pursuance of the powers in them vested by the nineteenth section of the act, entitled, "An act for establishing an health office, for otherwise securing the city and port of Philadelphia from the introduction of pestilential and contagious diseases, and for regulating the importation of German and other passengers,"¹ passed April the twenty-second, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, the mayor or recorder, and any two aldermen of the city of Philadelphia, and the commissioners of the city and county of Philadelphia, have purchased a lot or piece of ground on the west side of Schuylkill, opposite the west end of Market street, for the purpose of building a public hospital, for the reception of persons who may be afflicted with pestilential or contagious diseases:

And whereas many of the inhabitants of the said city apprehend that the lot so purchased is improper for the purpose aforesaid, and may, from its vicinity, endanger the health of the citizens. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all further proceedings in erecting a public hospital on the lot purchased in pursuance of the nineteenth section of the act, to which this is supplementary, be, and the same are hereby, directed to be suspended until the first day of July next after the passing of this act.

[Section II.] (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the board of inspectors of the health office of the city of Philadelphia, and they are hereby directed, on the request of the mayor or recorder, and any two aldermen of the city of Philadelphia, and the commissioner of the city and county of Philadelphia, to select by lot sixteen of their number, eight of whom shall be inhabitants of the city, and eight inhabitants of the county of Philadelphia, who, or a majority of them, shall be a board, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

[Section III.] (Section III, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said mayor or recorder, aldermen and county commissioners, are hereby authorized and directed, at any time before the first day of July next after the passing of this act, to purchase some convenient lot in the neighborhood of the city of Philadelphia, easily accessible, for the purpose of erecting thereon a public hospital, as mentioned in the nineteenth section of the act to which this is supplementary, and the same to take and hold in trust for that purpose, and to sell and convey in fee simple, to any persons they may think proper, the lot already purchased by them on the west side of Schuylkill, near the end of Market street; provided, that no such purchase or sale shall be as aforesaid made, without the approbation and consent of a majority of the sixteen inspectors, selected in the manner prescribed by the second section of this act.

[Section IV.] (Section IV, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the general board of inspectors of the health office of the city of Philadelphia, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to draw their warrant or warrants on the treasurer of the city and county of Philadelphia, countersigned by the commissioners of the said city and county, for all or any of the moneys raised in pursuance of the said nineteenth section of the act to which this is supplementary, whenever they shall judge the same necessary for the purposes mentioned in the said section.

CHAPTER MDCCCXLV.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT, ENTITLED, "AN ACT TO ESTABLISH THE JUDICIAL COURTS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH, IN CONFORMITY TO THE ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS IN THE CONSTITUTION."¹

Whereas the times directed by the supplement to the act to which this is a further supplement, for holding the several courts of common pleas and general quarter sessions of the peace in the county of Franklin, in the fourth district, are in many respects inconvenient. For remedy whereof:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the tenth day of May next, the courts of common pleas and the courts of general quarter sessions of the peace in the county of Franklin, in the fourth district, shall be held on the last Monday of December, March and July, and the Monday next preceding the last Monday in October.
