

CHAPTER MDCCCLXXIX.

A SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT, ENTITLED, "AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR ASCERTAINING THE ARREARAGES OF TAXES DUE FROM THE RESPECTIVE COUNTIES OF THIS COMMONWEALTH."

Whereas the time limited by the act, entitled, "An act to provide for ascertaining the arrearages of taxes due from the respective counties of this commonwealth," passed the seventeenth of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, for the commissioners therein named to make return of their proceedings to the comptroller general has, on experience, been found to be too short. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the powers vested in the commissioners therein named, by the act to which this is a supplement, shall be, and the same are, hereby revived, and to continue until the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Passed March 17, 1796. Recorded L. B. No. 6, p. 64, etc.

CHAPTER MMDCCCLXXX.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF AN INSPECTOR OF STAVES AND HEADING.

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the inspection of staves and heading shall be vested in an officer, other than the inspector of boards, timber and shingles, and the governor of this commonwealth shall forthwith appoint a person of competent skill and knowledge for the inspection of staves and heading, whose duties and compensation shall be the same as is now enjoined on and allowed to the present inspector of lumber, in like cases.

[Section II.] (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of any act, or acts, of assembly as is hereby altered or supplied shall be repealed and made void.

Passed March 17, 1796. Recorded L. B. No. 6, p. 65, etc.

CHAPTER MDCCCLXXXI.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A FERRY OVER THE JUNIATA RIVER OPPOSITE MIFFLINTOWN, IN THE COUNTY OF MIFFLIN, AND VESTING THE RIGHT IN WILLIAM HARRIS AND JOSEPH McCLELLAND, THEIR HEIRS AND ASSIGNS.

Whereas William Harris and Joseph McClelland have represented that they have, for a number of years past, established and maintained a ferry over the Juniata, on the main road leading from Sunbury and Northumberland to Path Valley, and opposite the town of Mifflin. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for William Harris and Joseph McClelland, their heirs and assigns, from and after the passing of this act, to make, or cause to be made, at their own proper cost and charge, good and convenient landings on both sides of the Juniata river, on the main road leading from Sunbury and Northumberland to Path Valley and opposite the town of Mifflin, and shall at all times hereafter maintain the same in good order and repair fit for men, horses and carriages to pass and repass, and further, William Harris
