

part of Martic lying north and east of a line beginning at the northeast corner of Drumore township, where it intersects Bart and Martic townships, from thence by a direct line to the house of Henry Eckman, on the road leading from the White Horse or Long's tavern to the borough of Lancaster, and from thence along the new laid out road to Pequea creek, at or near Martic forge, known by the name of the Martic forge road, and from thence up said creek to the Strasburg township line, shall be an election district, to be called the sixth district, and the electors thereof shall hold their general elections at the house now occupied by George Rine, in the village of Strasburg.

Passed March 31, 1797. Recorded L. B. No. 6, p. 185.

---

CHAPTER MCMXLIV.

---

A SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT ENTITLED, "AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR ALTERING THE BUILDINGS APPROPRIATED AS A GAOL FOR CRIMINALS."<sup>1</sup>

Whereas the sum appropriated by the act to which this is a supplement, has proved insufficient to complete the necessary buildings contemplated to be erected for the accommodation of the convicts in the gaol for criminals:

And whereas it appears that the money heretofore appropriated has been economically applied. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the governor be, and he is hereby, authorized to draw his warrant on the treasurer of this commonwealth, in favor of the commissioners appointed under the act to which this is a supplement, for the sum of six thousand dollars, to enable them to fulfill their contracts, and complete the buildings for criminals in the gaol yard.

Passed March 31, 1797. Recorded L. B. No. 6, p. 185, etc.

<sup>1</sup>Passed April 4, 1796, Chapter 1901.